TERRAPLANE 6

There are always two sides to an opinion. There can only be one side to a fact. If you are considering the purchase of a car—weigh these facts about the new Terraplane 6.

1st in BIGNESS

By foot rule, yard stick or tape measure, there can be only ONE car that's BIGGEST. In the low price field today, that's Terraplane—15 feet 10 inches from bumper to bumper!

1st in PERFORMANCE

Performance is just another word until it's proved. The Terraplane proves its performance with facts. The new Terraplane will even outperform the Terraplane 6 that broke official AAA record after record last year.

1st in POWER

Of two different figures—one is either greater or less than another. With 85 horsepower, the Terraplane 6 is the most powerful 6 in the low price field.

1st in STYLE

A car either has a tire carrier or baggage trunk in the rear—or the rear lines are clean. With clean, flowing rear body lines and a front end free of air pockets, the Terraplane 6 is first in fully advanced streamlined style.

1st in ECONOMY

Terraplane economy has been proved in actual owner service—by owners' sworn statements.

Prices subject to change without notice.

Men Who Know, Buying Ford Cars

In Wayne County, Michigan, which includes Detroit, home of the automobile industry, sales of Ford V-8 cars in February were more than three times as great as those of any other make in the low price field. It was revealed in registration figures compiled by R. L. Polk & Company.

During the 28 days of the month a total of 2,208 Ford V-8's were sold in the county, an official tabulation revealed.

Wayne County registrations are considered especially significant because they are believed to reflect the automotive buying trend for the entire United States.

The Dearborn Branch reported that Ford dealers in the County have predicted an even larger figure for March basing their statements on an increased demand evident in the first few days of the month.

Buyers Are No Longer Criticised

The man who has the means to purchase a new automobile and does so is no longer the object of criticism and derision that he was a few months ago, says Myrton F. Evans, Terraplane and Hudson (distributor) for this vicinity.

"Through a peculiar narrow-minded type of reasoning there was a period when people felt ashamed to be seen in new automobiles, or for that matter in new clothing," says Mr. Evans. "It did not seem to be realized that those who forebore to buy when they could were actually helping to put people out of work and to make times even harder. There were places in the country where buyers of new automobiles were actually stoned and derided for flaunting their wealth in the faces of their less fortunate neighbors."

"Fortunately a complete change of attitude has taken place. It is realized by everyone that only when people buy, will times be good and unemployment cease. The fact that this is so recognized now as compared with the attitude of a few months ago shows that we have all had a very useful lesson in fundamental economics."

"The number of people affected by the sale of each automobile is hard to calculate. There is not a section of the country which does not in some direct or indirect way benefit every time an automobile is bought. We have all come to realize this and bouquets rather than stones now follow the purchase of a car."

Rotary Club

The Andover Newton Theological School entertained the Newton Rotary Club on Institution Hill.

Dr. Everett C. Herrick, President of the famous institution, extended a greeting to the club and was very ably assisted by some of the students of the school.

A trio, Richard McKinney, Providence, R. I., Franklin Keele, Oklahoma, and Hilmer Nordlund, Canada, gave a few well chosen vocal selections. Some selections, based on Old Testament stories were given by Hilmer Nordlund on the auto harp.

A recent graduate, Reverend Lex Souter, spoke very forcefully on the Spirit of Christ.

The club had as guests, Charles Lothrop, Richard Young, Newton; Harding Green, Cambridge; and William Hart, Boston.

The members of the club fittingly observed the birthday anniversary of the Vice-President and Secretary, Lyscom A. Bruce, Jr. Dr. Fred Lowe, City physician and an ardent Yale graduate, presented a bouquet of blue to Bruce, a Harvard graduate, extending best wishes and many happy returns of the day.

CARD OF THANKS

The sympathy expressed by Captain Seaver of the Newton Fire Department on the occasion of the death of a little dog on Palm Sunday is greatly appreciated. It is such deeds as these which make the world a happier place in which to live.

Little Folk to Present Famous Opera "Pinafore"

An enterprising group of little folks will present the famous Gilbert and Sullivan opera "Pinafore," May 11th in the Woman's Club House in Newton Centre, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Wood Russell. This little club of fifty boys and girls, between the ages of five and eleven organized last year under the name of the "Radio Robins," and gave several very interesting concerts, a broadcast, and participated in the Federation music contest in Boston and also in Waltham. This season the club presented a Christmas pageant and a "Musical Evening," with two one-act plays, in the Mason School auditorium. They are now energetically practicing for the "Pinafore" presentation, with some very clever little soloists and a large and "sprightly" chorus. The musical circles in and about Boston are highly interested in the undertaking as this is the youngest group ever to attempt the opera.

ALL NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL RECITAL

In addition to piano, violin and cello solos there will be interesting numbers arranged for two pianos, as well as a cello solo accompanied by a string orchestra.

The recital is open to the public and all are cordially welcome.

A PUBLIC GOLF COURSE

The announcement that the Albemarle Golf course will be operated as a public 18-hole course is of great interest to hundreds of Newton golfers. A few months ago petitions circulated asking the city to take the course over as a municipal project revealed the fact that there would be considerable demand by golfers to utilize the facilities thus offered. After careful consideration the city rejected the opportunity to make this a municipal course because it seemed practically certain that some expense of maintenance and operation would fall upon the taxpayer. Showing his faith in Newton residents who had expressed their desire for a public course Percy S. Woodward formed a private corporation which will operate the entire layout as an 18-hole public course. There is little question but such a private corporation can operate such a project at considerably less expense than could the city. If Newton Golfers want a public course it is now squarely up to them. If not the project will unquestionably be abandoned later and the property developed for residential purposes. Here is a chance for citizens of Newton to co-operate with Mr. Woodward and his associates with real community spirit.

The election of former Alderman Arthur W. Mansfield to fill the vacancy in the Board of Aldermen caused by the death of Alderman Howlett is expected. Although Mr. Mansfield's previous term was rather brief and was ended because of a change in residence to another suburb of Boston he was fully qualified to hold the position. Ward One is to be congratulated that he is again available for public service.

Spring is here all right. Robins, marbles, jump ropes, and corner lot baseball games as well as crocuses and other early spring flowers are the unfailing signs.

If the dollar is only worth 59 cents what is left for those who have to pay a 59 per cent surtax on large incomes?

More Claims For Blasting Damage Paid By City

Twelve Claims Settled: Three New Claims Filed

Despite the fact that many months have elapsed since blasting operations on the high level sewer at Newton were finished, claims for alleged damages to houses continue to be presented to the Board of Aldermen. At the meeting of the Board on Monday night claims were received from William S. Altieri, 219 Tremont street, Newton; J. J. Glynn, 215 Tremont st.; Edward H. Keach, 4 Pembroke st. The Aldermen appropriated $2715 to settle twelve claims for alleged damages. The claims for which this appropriation was made and the amounts awarded are as follows: Anna Gustafson, 32 Winchester rd., $75; William Daly, 59 Playstead rd., $50; Ida Lockwood, 74 Elmhurst rd., $210; William J. Powers, 30 Playstead rd., $300; Charlotte Shore, 9 Winchester rd., $400; Frank Reinhard, 257 Cabot st., $85; Edward F. Cannon, 50 Bennington st., $360; Katherine O'Brien, 11 Newtonville ave., $302; John McLellan, 274 Tremont street, $78; Ella McCormack, 66 Bennington st., $205; Leonardo Nardone, 103 Langdon st., $400; Katherine Theyson, 3 Ricker terrace, $250.

Norumbega District Council Of Religious Education

Nearly 300 persons attended the Easter Sunrise Service last Sunday, in spite of bad weather conditions. The service was held in Colby Hall Chapel, instead of outdoors. Roland Jones, president of the Young People's Council, presided, assisted by John Allen as organist, and by other officers of the council. Dean Vaughan Dabney spoke on the topic, "Facing the Sunrise." The Annual Convention of the District, which took place recently in Waltham, brought together about 150 Sunday School workers of the District. The end of the training school season was marked by the distribution of over 60 credits earned in the Newtonville and Waltham schools. One of the speakers emphasized the importance of subject matter or content in the religious educational program, while the other emphasized the necessity for applying the material and meeting the needs of present everyday life. The annual business meeting of the District was postponed from the Convention to a special meeting called for some date to be announced in April.

ONE THING... ...AND ANOTHER

Oddments

Let a man appear in a new suit and he is at once the target of jibes and joshing. This is not a personal whine, for if I had some fresh sartorial scenery to exhibit I wouldn't care how many people made jokes about it. The only objection I have to the playfulness of those guilty of humorous comments on another's dress is that they seldom have anything new to offer. The fun they produce usually centers around the price or the place of purchase. For years I've been looking for a laugh out of ancient origin. The other day I got it. A friend appeared before a group with a natty tweed suit. Said one of the anxious, "Congratulations. I see you have a suit from the other side. I can tell it's imported because I smell the ocean breezes."

It is puzzling me just where these "stop" movements are going to end. At first they were restricted, more or less, to obstructing the path of a political candidate. Determination on the part of his enemies to prevent him from going any higher was called a "stop" movement. Now we find the idea has expanded and the chief magistrate of our largest city from doing his sworn duty. If in his opinion he has inherited a burden of unnecessary expense, waste and whatnot from a previous administration, should he not be upheld in his efforts to readjust conditions? Is there any reason that the money of the taxpayers should be squandered and that of a private corporation economically expended? And when the man in office has the courage—a quality not often found among public officeholders—to do what he believes his duty there is a "stop" movement promptly organized. The only solution I can see is a "stop movement" to stop all stop movements.

The Walking Loud Speaker

Doubtless if I had a scientific mind, or half or quarter of one, I should acknowledge the progress of invention and applaud arrival at a stage that suggests that Newton policemen carry their own radio receiving sets. Only some commonplace fellow like myself would fail to marvel at such a possibility. When I learned that it had been proposed that a receiving set may be attached to an officer's Sam Browne belt I fell at once into a reminiscent mood. All I could think of was the one-man band we used to see on our streets years ago. No radio-equipped policeman could ever stir the youngsters today as the one-man band of my boyhood.

What a load of music this individual carried. The largest instrument was a bass drum, strapped on his back. Above it was a snare drum. On his head he wore a brass hat. It was conical in shape and mounted with a set of small brass spheres. By shaking his head the spheres jangled against his metal helmet with a tinkling effect. Attached to the brass drum were cymbals and these and both drums were fastened to a strip of leather. The latter was hooked onto a stick of wood clasped by more straps to his right leg. A vigorous kicking movement caused both drums and the cymbals to respond. Equally busy were his arms, hands and lungs. Was it an accordion that he played and a harmonica he blew? Something like that. At any rate he had an entire symphony orchestra yet he managed to navigate. The only thing that interfered with his parade was a group of popped-eyed boys and girls. In their astonishment they impeded his march, but he didn't seem to mind. He wasn't in a hurry. And yet he has passed out of the picture along with other itinerant street musicians.

What of it? Nothing, save the change in the order of things. It will be a novelty for a time to watch a cop equipped to receive the output of the broadcasting stations, but there will be little amazement as portable radio sets are found everywhere. And these will be useful I suppose in transmitting police intelligence. There is undoubtedly need of them, too. To my mind, however, the thing will not stop there. People who like to have the home loudspeaker going day and night will probably soon be able to wear receiving sets attached to their pajamas. Those will be the happy nights—for them at least.

Newton Wins Praise

It cannot be otherwise than gratifying to learn, as I have this week, that in taxation circles Newton is attracting attention and favorable comment from other parts of Massachusetts. This is the season of annual meetings of county assessors where many interesting things are revealed. Of especial interest to Newton were the proceedings of the annual meeting of Middlesex county recently held in Lexington in the beautiful Cary Memorial Building, a gift to the town of Lexington. It may be recalled that the same group met last year in Newton's new city hall.

At the Lexington meeting State Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long, in his address, outlined their work for the coming year and pointed to Newton as an illustration of intelligent and reasonable assessing methods. He referred in particular to the painstaking way in which its assessing was done, resulting, he said, in practically no criticism of Newton assessors or their methods having reached his department. Here, indeed, would be promptly registered any complaint or instance where fault was found since the Commissioner has supervision of all assessors in the commonwealth. My personal knowledge of Mr. Long's thoroughness and his forthrightness enables me to appreciate more keenly ly the compliment he has paid this city.

The same high regard for Newton assessors no doubt exists throughout the county. Certainly it is plainly evident that the entire group of Middlesex county assessors feels that way as John W. Murphy, chairman of the Newton assessors, was elected president of the association and John R. Prescott, also of the Newton board was elected treasurer. Incidentally, Mr. Prescott, who has just rounded out a period of 25 years' service as principal assessor, has been reappointed for another term of three years, an appointment confirmed by the Board of Aldermen.

Under The Gilded Dome

The question of a state lottery and the police unification bill were the two foremost subjects of interest at the State House this week. On the latter subject public hearings were held beginning Monday and many speakers appeared both in favor of the many provisions in opposition. Before the committee on Judiciary on Monday the twenty-seven sections of the bill were discussed and late Monday afternoon proponents of the bill had disclaimed authorship of more than twenty of the various provisions. This shows to some degree the controversy that the bill is causing. The committee is expected to report some sort of a bill within another week or two.

The bill for a state lottery passed the House this week with a change in the proposal so that it will first appear on the ballot as a referendum next fall. There was little opposition to the measure in the House and it will be considered by the Senate next week. If passing the upper branch it will then have to go to the governor. Should the voters favor a state lottery on the ballot next fall the proposal will then come back to the 1935 Legislature to establish a commission which will handle the mechanics of the lottery system.

There were a few fireworks in the Senate this week when Senator Finnegan sought to have the upper branch adopt an order calling for an investigation of an insurance matter which the Senate was considering. Senator MacKay of Quincy, chairman of the insurance committee, was favoring substitution of a bill rejected by the committee. The Senator showed in the Norfolk Senator by refusing the Dorchester Senator's investigation order by a roll-call vote of 21 to 4.

The Senate this week accepted the compromise on the state employees salary bill making a graded restoration of payments on the basis of amount of salary drawn. The Senate yesterday killed a bill substituted in the House for an adverse committee report, which would give compensation to injured employees for the entire period of incapacity instead of the present limited period of ten weeks.

The Middlesex Republican Legislators Club was formed this week at a luncheon meeting at the Boston City Club. It is comprised of Republican members of the House and Senate of Middlesex County. Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton was elected president and Rep. Philip H. Sherman of Somerville, vice-president. Rep. Warren K. Brimblecom of Newton was appointed secretary-treasurer.

SCHOOL CHATS

An authoritative article each week covering important and interesting phases of public school organization and activity. Prepared under the direction of the School Department.

THE REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS FOR 1934

will be published serially in this column during the next few weeks.

To the School Committee of Newton:

I am pleased to present this, my second annual report, as Superintendent of the Newton schools, for the calendar year of 1934. In the face of the continuing problem of how best to maintain public education during a period of economic depression, this has been a year of notable progress in maintaining educational standards and increasing the effectiveness of service to children.

Because of the wide publicity given to many of our school activities this report will be limited to a spot-lighting of high points of progress. The public relations policy of the School Department has functioned so effectively in keeping parents and citizens continuously informed concerning school activities that a summary account only is indicated in this annual report. We need to cite but a few activities in the field of public relations to make this clear. Each week during the school year authoritative articles on interesting activities of the School Department have been published in the Newton Graphic under the title of "School Chats." At some time during the year "open house" has been observed in all school districts with large numbers of parents in attendance, observing the work of the children, meeting and conferring with teachers. The Superintendent has addressed some twenty groups ranging in number as high as seven to eight hundred people, in all parts of the city. Thousands of parents have been in close touch with the work and problems of their children. Members of the staff have made presentations to various groups, including service clubs, women's clubs, parent-teacher organizations, and community groups.

Altogether these activities and the response on the part of the citizens generally has served to crystallize into conviction the impression recorded in our first report rendered a year ago, as follows:

"And finally the impression grows upon one of a community of citizens to whom educational opportunity for their children is a matter of prime concern. I have been impressed very much with the number of parents who have visited the schools on the many occasions provided this year in all parts of the city. It has been a real privilege to face many eager audiences of people tremendously interested to know at first hand of the work of their schools. And so I begin my work here with a high faith in the future of education in Newton. Every essential factor seems pre-eminently favorable to progress."

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

The act of Rear Admiral Byrd in starting to remain alone for seven months in an advance post at the Antarctic is not a publicity stunt. Of course not.

Every rose bush has thorns. No sooner is it decided to equip the Newton policemen with "Sam Browne belts" on which to hang pistol holsters, than making our guardians of the law quite snappy and business like in appearance, than some person comes forward with a proposition that will not only nullify the snappy sartorial aspect of Newton's bluecoats, but which will make them look fantastic. Certain individuals, interested in radios from the standpoint of enthusiasts, and also, possibly from a commercial consideration, propose that Newton policemen on foot duty shall have attached to their "Sam Browne belts" not only revolver holsters, but also radio receiving sets. The antenna for such a set, according to the plan, will stretch across the back of the policeman's coat, and the earphone will hang from the new "10 point cap" which it is proposed they will wear. If the policeman wears rubber heels and soles on his shoes, as many of them do, probably they will have a chain attached to the "Sam Browne belt" for a ground, the same as one sees on gasoline trucks.

One embarrassing feature of this plan would be—that a stranger in this city, observing an earphone attached to a patrolman's cap, might reasonably suppose the person so equipped to be deaf, and if such a stranger wanted to ask questions of the officer, he might start shouting. Another objection to this innovation is—that a policeman who is concentrating on an endeavor to listen by means of his earphone, cannot give the attention he should in noticing what is going on about him.

The older members of the Newton police department, who have in many cases become somewhat stout, will not enthrone over the "Sam Browne belts." These belts do not make fat persons more slender in appearance. Neither will they make the policemen any cooler during the hot summer months. And Newton is one of the few places where policemen have had to sweater in heavy uniforms during June, July and August.

The Post Office Department urges the public not to use tiny envelopes. Such envelopes are used mostly by women who think diminutive stationery is cute. Envelopes which measure less than 4 inches in length and 2 3/4 inches in width cannot be run through cancelling machines, and even if postmarked by hand are apt to have the addresses on them obliterated. They are apt to be delayed in transit by dropping from between other letters while being handled, and they are apt to be lost by letter carriers by dropping out from between other letters. Remember, the postal service is for practical purposes, not for fun. So, use envelopes that are considerably larger than yeast cake labels.

More and more broken glass is scattered on streets in this city, costing autoists unnecessary expense by ruining tires. It would seem that the potholes and observing broken glass on the streets and reporting it, and the prompt co-operation of the Street Department in removing such glass can both assist in saving many thousands of dollars to automobile owners in the Newtons.

Operetta by Vested Choirs at West Newton

The Vested Choirs of the Lincoln Park Baptist Church, West Newton, will present a most intriguing operetta on Friday evening, April 13th, under the direction of Miss Mabel Adams Bennett, organist and chorister.

Delightful Day of Visiting Homes Is Arranged

A HOME VISITING DAY on April 13th, will be sponsored by the American Home committee of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, when homes of different types of architecture and of special interest will be open to club members through the day. The selection covers homes in different sections of the city, and includes two outstanding English houses, two well-known Spanish homes, one of Mid-Victorian type, a distinctive Cape Cod cottage, a Norman house noted for its tapestries, an interesting early Colonial style, and several others having artistic interior decorations. St. Mary's, the lovely old Episcopal Church in Newton Lower Falls, will also be included in the itinerary. The visiting hours for these homes will be from 10 a. m. to 12:30 and from 2 to 4:30 p. m.

From 12:30 to 2 p. m. a delightful luncheon will be served by the Home-makers' Demonstration Service at the Newton Centre Club House. Tickets at 75 cents are for the entire day, and may be procured in the different clubs from the chairman of the American Home committee. Mrs. Clarence H. Spike, of Newton, is chairman of the Federation committee which has arranged this interesting tour.

Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, chairman of the Conservation committee, has arranged an interesting and instructive afternoon for Tuesday, April 10th, for the Newtonville Woman's Club, when Professor Arnold M. Davis, of the department of Agriculture and Home Economics Extension of the Massachusetts State College, will give an illustrated lecture on "Garden Maintenance" at 2:30 o'clock, at the Club House. Professor Davis will allow time for a question period after his lecture. Co-operating with the Conservation committee, the Music committee will present Marjorie Chalmers Carleton, of Newtonville, who will play a group of instrumental selections of her own composition. This program will be an enjoyable one for all, particularly for those interested in gardens. Tickets at 35 cents may be obtained from members of the Conservation committee.

The Hospital committee, under the direction of Mrs. Henry J. Baringer, will hold its monthly meeting at the Newton Hospital on Thursday, April 12th. This group accomplishes a great deal in the day which it devotes to Hospital sewing, and Mrs. Baringer will be glad to welcome volunteers. Also, there is use for still more old clean household cotton or linen rags. Bundles may be sent to the hospital, or if the chairman is notified she will collect them.

"The Romance of Silver" will be the topic of Franklin Porter, craftsman, as he lectures before the members of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Newton Community Club

"Chinese Art and Gardens," an illustrated lecture by Herbert White, brings to the Newton Community Club on Thursday afternoon, the 12th of April, a delightful visit to interesting and beautiful spots in China. Herbert White and his brother spent eight years in China visiting and exploring the great monuments and places of artistic interest, palaces, cities, gardens, and their photographs have caught the enchantment of these unusual and different types of dwelling and decoration.

The Music committee, of which Mrs. Wallace Wales is chairman, will present as part of the program Janet Raser, a student of piano with Carl Switzer, in piano classics. Miss Raser is a sophomore at Newton High School, where she plays the piano in the orchestra, and also plays the new instrument the Emicon, which is attracting so much interest in musical programs just now. The Emicon has a keyboard of two and one-half octaves operated by electricity; the different stops changing the tones to imitate many instruments.

The meeting will be held as usual in Underwood School Hall at 2:30 p. m. Tea will be served after the program.

Plans for the celebration of the Fifteenth Anniversary of the Club in the Luncheon which will be held at Channing Church on April 26th are completed, and tickets should be reserved through the Hospitality committee as early as possible. Tickets may be obtained at the meeting on the 12th from Mrs. J. LeRoy Conel, chairman, or from Mrs. Edwin A. Briggs, Mrs. J. Frank Bridge, Mrs. Charles F. Glueck, Mrs. Marvin M. Perry, Mrs. E. L. Ford, and Miss Miriam Drury. The final date for making reservations is April 24th.

The Juniors of the Club are planning a Guest Day for the mothers of the Junior members at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon, April 9th, at Eliot Church. A musical program will be given by some of the talented Juniors, after which there will be an entertainment provided by the Elizabeth Arden representatives from Filene's who will discuss "The Art of Make-up." One of the Junior members and one of the mothers will be the models used to illustrate the discussion. Tea will be served. But, most interesting to the Senior Club members, is the invitation to attend, since the meeting is open to the public, there will be an admission fee of 15 cents.

... THE ... NEW NEWTON DIRECTORY

Will be delivered to subscribers next week.

Do not try to economize by using the old book. It will be expensive in both time and money on account of the great number of changes that have taken place in the last two years.

The new book has nearly 4000 more names, or an increase of 9%, which is unusual for a city the size of Newton. In compiling the Alphabetical Section alone changes were made in two out of three names in the previous issue.

A new feature is the arrangement of the House Directory Section which, instead of having all of the streets in one Alphabetical list, is made up of five sections, with a map preceding each section, as follows:

NEWTON AND NEWTONVILLE
NEWTON CENTRE AND CHESTNUT HILL
WEST NEWTON AND AUBURNDALE
NEWTON HIGHLANDS AND UPPER FALLS
WABAN AND LOWER FALLS

In this department, Property owners are designated by a symbol following the name.

The book contains a wealth of information about the city that is not found in any other publication, and the price is only $6.00, less than two cents a day, if ordered before publication. After delivery the price will be $8.00.

Mary Ellen Chase, author of "A Goodly Heritage," and professor of English Literature at Smith College, lectured on "Present Literary Tendencies" at the meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands on Tuesday, April 3rd, held at 2 p. m., in the Congregational Parish House. Professor Smith explained that she was going to talk about "Tendencies" which are more or less a mysterious undecurrent or drift, and not about those with a so-called cause. She stated that the literary tendencies of 1860 down to the '90's was sectional, the local color school; from 1905 to the War, when capitalism was rampant and huge fortunes were being made, there were the economic tendencies; from 1918 to 1928 there was the subjective tendency, when authors took their own thesis of life with-out relation to life in the large; and today the best of modern writing representing all the women's clubs in the city, the Clothes Room at the City Hall, now in its fourth year.

The wheels of a smooth-running organization were set in motion. The Federation Community Service chairman, Mrs. Robert Bonner, with Mrs. James A. Stafford, who is on duty at the Clothes Room every day, arrived at the Stearns School at 9 a. m. the following morning, and with the help of Miss Welch and Miss Sandstrom, school nurses, put things in order. In arranging the supplies on hand, they first filled eleven bags with clothing which was not practical for their use, and sent them to the Morgan Memorial. That first day ten urgent cases were cared for. The following day at 9 a. m. they again reported, with Mrs. Joseph C. McCarron, vice-chairman of the Federation committee, and before noon, ninety-five children had been taken care of, and two hundred and eighty garments distributed.

The volunteers, under Mrs. E. Ward Bartram, of Waban, and Mrs. Kenneth B. Backman, of Newton, are continuing the good work they have done. The Federation has reported to Mr. John Lund, superintendent of schools, and has received his approval and gracious thanks for the work in meeting another emergency. This work will be continued two days each week under the Federation for the remainder of the year.

The method of handling and distributing garments, as practiced by the Community Service committee at the Clothes Room, where all but school children may apply, has attracted state-wide attention, and visitors from many cities and towns, both in and outside of the state have called to inspect the rooms and to seek information as to the system employed.

Work Guaranteed—Honest Prices

TYDOL is protected

Ask the man at the pump

THE finest motor fuel ever sold at the regular gasoline price. That's what we pledged TYDOL to be in 1934. And that's what it is!

And now we seal that pledge of quality by sealing a tag on every TYDOL pump. Behind that tag is a story of the integrity of 22,000 TYDOL dealers. They were determined, in these days of substitution, "cutting" and adulteration . . . that TYDOL must be protected . . . there should be no tampering with TYDOL's high quality. So with their cooperation, the makers of TYDOL developed a patented device . . . a "Secret Detector."

This device shows instantly the slightest impurity or adulteration in TYDOL. It is used in thousands of tests, made day and night, every inch of the way from the refinery to your car.

When you ask for TYDOL you get TYDOL! You get the highest anti-knock, the most powerful gasoline ever sold at the regular gas price. You get the gasoline that is different . . . that actually lubricates as it drives. The gasoline that is best for your motor . . . and the most for your money.

Crime Is Subject Of Officials Before Women Voters

Atty. Gen. Warner, Mayor Weeks, and Chief Hughes Speak at Newton Corner

"The Crime Problem," was the subject of the meeting of the branch of the League of Women Voters in cooperation with the Newton Centre Woman's Club held at the club house in Newton Centre April 10, at 10 a. m. The speakers for the meeting were the Hon. Joseph E. Warner, the Hon. Sinclair Weeks, and the Chief of Police Michael Hughes.

The president of the branch, Mrs. Harstone introduced the president of the Boston branch of the League, Mrs. Robert L. De Normandie. "The League is a national organization, having branches in 43 of the 48 states, and is non-partisan in character," said Mrs. De Normandie. The purpose of the league is to help women voters to meet their voting responsibilities faithfully.

The Attorney General Joseph E. Warner was introduced. It is a time for the greatest intelligence, all persons who are permitted should use their voting power. Mr. Warner said, "That many people have stated that if Canada and England have controlled their crime problem, we in the United States should be able to do the same." This does not hold for several reasons. First there is the size of the country. England is bounded on all sides by water, thus making escape from the country very difficult. When compared with this country, Canada and England have a very small population. In Massachusetts alone there are four and a half million people. In England the judges are allowed to give advice to the jury—here they must leave it all up to the jury. Again the form in which the legal system is set up, the solicitors who get the evidence and the barristers who present it in court make for English efficiency. In our court the inexperienced lawyer is likely to find himself pitted against an experienced opponent.

The crime situation divides itself in four factors: 1—Prevention, 2—Arrest, 3—Prosecution, 4—Correction. Under prevention, Mr. Warner said, "we must express disapproval of all moving pictures that tend to arouse criminal instincts."

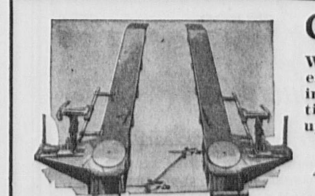

The greatest problem to be faced is that of having a speedy arrest of the law breaker. "We must remember that the police are doing their best with what equipment they have, before we criticize them," said the Attorney General. Massachusetts has the state police, the Metropolitan police, but these bodies are apart from police forces of the towns and cities. Until we co-ordinate imperfect results in the capture of vicious criminals must be expected. Mr. Warner said, "There are now two bills before the legislature demanding the co-ordination of police forces in this state, this is indeed a step in the right direction." The cities are willing to co-operate but they must be told how. Mr. Warner said, "Every good citizen should write to his local representative urging the passage of these bills."

Mayor Sinclair Weeks was then introduced. He said, "Lack of co-ordination among the police, the use of fast cars, radio and machine guns has given the criminal the edge on the police. Even in our own department there is room for improvement. This improvement is constantly going on, we have added new equipment and our department is moving forward. If we co-ordinate our department will stand foremost in the state."

Chief of Police Hughes, the third and last speaker, told of the work of the Newton Police Department. The personnel of the Newton force has not been changed since 1930—the aspect of the work however has changed entirely. When the police patrolled the city on foot, the criminals would become familiar with the habits of the officer and choose a time for their work when he was farthest away.

IMPROVEMENT ASSN. AT NEWTON CENTRE ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association held at the Newton Centre Library on Wednesday evening, April 11th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Charles K. B. Nevin, an architect of 50 Tyler terrace; vice president, Edward O. Proctor, a lawyer of 78 Glen ave., president of the Jefferson Club of Newton, an unsuccessful candidate for Democratic membership to the Legislature and Board of Aldermen; treasurer, Henry E. Whitmore, a lawyer of 126 Glen ave.; secretary, Joseph T. Bishop, a lawyer of 210 Langley rd.; auditor, Frederick C. Rising, accountant of 84 Parker st.; members of the Executive Committee, Otis D. Fellows, mining engineer and employee of the Metropolitan District Commission of 142 Homer st., and Sam H. T. Emery, fire insurance agent of 35 Marshall st.

An unusual feature of the meeting was that the choice of officers as chosen and submitted by the nominating committee were not elected. With but very few exceptions during the seventy-five years of existence of the Newton Centre Improvement Association the report of the Nominating committee has always been approved. Leading the opposition to the nominating committee report were among others: Charles Wood Bond, a lawyer, prominent in the political campaign of Alfred H. Whitney; Paul D. Howard, a lawyer and signer of most of literature of Thomas W. White during his recent campaign for Mayor; Alfred H. Whitney, a vice-president and twice unsuccessful candidate for Ward Six Alderman; Joseph F. Lockett, a lawyer and former member of the School Committee, succeeded by Professor Kirtley F. Mather; and Otis D. Fellows. Those who spoke in favor of the nominating committee's report were: Ex-Alderman Norman F. Pratt, Chairman of the Nominating Committee and a former Vice President of the Association; Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., a former member of the Executive Committee and Secretary of the Republican City Committee; and Alderman Sydney B. Holden, present member of the Executive Committee.

Many suggestions by members were acted upon by the Association. It was voted to appoint a committee to investigate the Newton Police Department, and for that committee to report to the organization as to the reason why the police department failed to apprehend speeding motorists on Beacon st., Newton Centre. It also was voted to appoint a special committee to interview post master Hurley at his Boston office for the purpose of investigating Newton residents to obtain their mail from the Newton Centre Post Office by calling at the Post Office in the afternoon. Harsh criticism was levied at the policy of the government in eliminating mail deliveries. A special committee is to be appointed by the new president to study proposed routes of the Hammond's Pond Parkway. After some discussion of traffic lights and traffic problems and after a vote of appreciation for the services of the outgoing officers the meeting was adjourned. Forty-eight members were present out of a total membership of nearly four hundred.

Chief Hughes said, "In January, 1932, seven cars were added to the police equipment thus enabling the officers to get to the scene of a crime in a very few minutes." In October, 1932, the recall system of flashing lights was put into use. These flashing lights would bring an officer to a call box, where he would receive a message. In the fall of 1933 the radio transmitting system was installed. Mr. Hughes said, "By the use of this radio connection, actual tests showed a car could travel from one end of its district to the other in five minutes, and could cover the district thoroughly in an hour." The radio is a means of preventing crime and capturing the criminal.

In conclusion Chief Hughes said, "The people of Newton may well feel secure in that their police department is so well equipped. A criminal will not venture into an area that is well policed. The Newton Police are unexcelled in any city or town in the state."

Head of Middlesex Sanatorium Speaks At Welfare Bureau

Tells Directors of Care of The Patients There

Dr. Sumner H. Remick, Superintendent of the new Middlesex County Sanatorium, at Waltham, spoke to the directors of the Newton Welfare Bureau at their recent Board meeting which was held Wednesday afternoon, April 4th, in the office of the Bureau at 12 Austin st., Newtonville. He was introduced by Dr. Cecil Clark, Chairman of the Health Committee, which has charge of the expenditures of the Christmas Seal money raised in Newton for local antituberculosis work.

As Newton is one of the cities served by the new sanatorium and one of the cities which contributes towards its support, Dr. Remick told most interesting facts about the care given tubercular patients in the institution, and also about the services, both diagnostic and follow-up, given outside the institution to the community. He said construction was started on the sanatorium in 1929 and the first patients admitted Sept. 30, 1931. They started with 225 beds which seemed a reasonable number, but the institution has proved not to be large enough so they have increased it to 252 beds and there is a waiting list of 103 people. People who applied last October and November are still waiting which is unfortunate as the patient loses chances to get well and the family living with them is apt to be infected in the meantime. House Bill No. 817 has been introduced to the Legislature to enlarge the sanatorium to take care of this additional load.

Patients are admitted by application from their own private physician, which application must be approved by the local Board of Health. Admissions are made in the order of application and the board is paid by the local Department of Health. The modern sanatorium now functions exactly like a modern hospital. They have expert surgical and medical treatment with necessary excellent equipment to go with it. Patients are immediately put to bed upon admission as rest is the most important factor in the treatment of tuberculosis—physical rest, mental rest, and rest of the diseased lung if necessary.

Early diagnosis in the early stages of the disease is one of the most important elements in the whole treatment. They found that last year 70% of the patients admitted were in advance stages and many of that number cannot receive much benefit from treatment whereas had they received it earlier, the condition could have been arrested. In the first year of the sanatorium's existence they made 204 examinations. For this purpose they have opened Out-Patient Clinics in Ayer, in the Newton Hospital and Medford. The Newton Hospital has four clinics a month. The referral and preliminary work is done locally by the Newton Board of Health and physicians, but the specialized services of the sanatorium is used in the clinic and follow-up.

The following up of patients after their discharge is another important function in the control of tuberculosis. They have between 300 and 400 patients in this group. The institution gives training to medical students. Social service plays a very important part in the care of tuberculosis as family history and family conditions are one of the most important elements in its care.

Dr. Remick said he was a firm believer in health camps. It was of particular interest to the Newton Welfare Bureau as the largest item in the antituberculosis work of the Health Committee has been for many years its expenditure for sending children to health camps. He felt children should be sent to health camps only on the basis of a very careful medical selection and usually should be known to have had contact with tuberculosis. Physicians in making this choice should have in addition to medical information all of the social and economic factors of the child's life. This is the best way to control the development of tuberculosis and also cut down the expense of running health camps as their only function should be the prevention of tuberculosis in children, not recreation. It is better to send a small group of children for at least an eight-week period than a larger group for shorter periods. This for years has been the policy of the Health Committee of the Welfare Bureau and has been the guiding principle in the selection of the children for whose health this money is invested. In health camps rest is the most important factor as in sanatoria. County commissioners are authorized to spend a sum not to exceed $3000 a year on the construction and maintenance of health camps or preventoria.

Mr. Frank Kiernan of the Massachusetts Tuberculosis League, Inc., during the question period following Dr. Remick's speech, made interesting statements as to health camps in Massachusetts.

The kind of care sanatoria give is necessary for those who are bed patients and for those who need bed care, but it is also necessary to do the community work of prevention and health education which no sanatorium, no matter how well equipped, can do. Even though tuberculosis might never be able to be wiped out, the social consequences of it can be materially decreased if lay people and private organizations can conduct ancillary

Waban Youth Charged With Manslaughter

Drove Car That Killed Waban Child on March 8th

Paul M. Bessey, 17, of 51 Waban ave., Waban, was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday on charges of manslaughter and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. His case was continued until April 18, and he was released in $1,500 bail. Bessey was the driver of the car which on March 8 hit and fatally injured Peter Preston, 6, of 36 Metacommet rd., Waban. It is alleged that the brakes on the car were defective. Warrants for Bessey's arrest on the two charges were issued several days ago, following an inquest on the Preston boy's death. Bessey went to Newton police headquarters on Monday afternoon and surrendered himself to Special Officer Charles Feeley who has been investigating this case.

Dogs Bite Two Persons in City

Mrs. Audrey Cangiano of 10 Maplewood avenue, Newton Centre received a severe bite on her left leg on Sunday from a chow dog which she owned. The animal was fighting with another dog and Mrs. Cangiano tried to separate the two dogs. The Newton police ambulance went to her residence to take her to the Newton Hospital but she declined to go and later went to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital for treatment.

George Stanley of 123 Bolton street, South Boston, a collector for a charitable organization, was bitten on the wrist on Monday morning by a police dog owned by Robert E. Gubbins of 109 Oakleigh road, Newton. Dr. Boutelle was notified in both cases and placed the two dogs under observation.

Cham. of Commerce Secretary Resigns

Luke R. Fleming, for the past several years secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce has tendered his resignation. The position will be temporarily filled by Rupert C. Thompson of Newtonville, a former president of the organization. President James P. Gallagher of the Chamber has appointed a committee to consider plans for a re-organization of this body. The committee includes Andrew J. Ford, Fred Bond and Herbert McGill.

Auburdale House Is Badly Damaged By Fire

The home of Filipo Capodanno, 349 Lexington street, Auburdale was damaged to the extent of about $3000 Tuesday night by a fire which started in the cellar and spread to the first floor. Mrs. Capodanno was awakened by smoke about 11:50 and an alarm was given. Mrs. Capodanno is a member of the family. Members of the family made hasty exits from the house and Filipo Capodanno, 71, was carried from the third floor by his son, Anthony. Mr. Capodanno has been an invalid for over a year.

movements in the community to supplement what was done in the sanatoria. It is toward this purpose that the antituberculosis leagues throughout the United States have been functioning over a period of years with marked success.

Appropos of the establishment of preventoria or health camps for preventing the further development of tuberculosis in children who have had contact with it in their families, he said State experience has proved that these health camps can be run better, more efficiently and more economically when they are in connection with a State or County Sanatorium. He resumed the activities in the various health camps in Massachusetts.

Last summer the Newton Welfare Bureau sent 38 children to health camps, financed by Christmas Seal money. In spending this money the very best judgment possible was used in conforming to exactly the program and principles laid down by Dr. Remick and Mr. Kiernan. It is one of the most satisfactory pieces of work the Welfare Bureau does during the year. Some of these children have benefited from this money for several years in succession so that now they are entering into adolescence with additional strength and vitality with which to meet life as it comes.

Merchants Plan To Boost Business At Newton Corner

Newton Business Associates Resume Monthly Meetings

A meeting of the Newton Business Associates composed of merchants, business and professional men at Newton Corner, met Wednesday evening at the Vernon Court and discussed plans to improve conditions at Newton Corner. President Walter McCammon presided over the meeting which was attended by nearly fifty businessmen. Criticism was voiced by some regarding the failure of the merchants to co-operate with each other for the betterment of the entire section and the lively discussion which followed made it evident that future meetings of the group would inspire confidence and co-operation. Indication of this feeling was marked through the unanimous vote to resume the regular monthly meetings of the Associates.

The first matter discussed was that of effectively and thoroughly decorating the business section at Christmas time next winter. A plan to collect small weekly contributions from all the merchants was favored by a majority of those present and the president was authorized to appoint a committee with full powers to act to this end.

The problem of parking and traffic congestion was another matter which was under discussion for a considerable length of time. A resolution was adopted asking that the police department have the traffic signal tower manned by a police officer through the day. It was felt by a number of those present that there is sufficient need and that allowing the signal to operate automatically at many times adds much to the congestion. It was also voted to ask the police department to enforce the present parking restrictions in the section. As in previous discussions criticism was made against those merchants who park their own cars in the section and thus exclude the use of the parking spaces by patrons. With the view looking toward the elimination of this practice and in order to provide more facilities for patrons a committee was named to consider the parking matter. When it was learned that the vacant lot formerly occupied by the first motion picture house in the section could probably be used for this purpose and that it would entail but slight expense in filling in the remainder of the old cellar, levelling, and marking off parking spaces, it seemed likely that the Associates were nearer to a solution of the problem than on any previous attempt. The lot in question will accommodate approximately 130 cars.

The regulation of the post office department in eliminating afternoon mail delivery except to those business houses whose volume of mail and character of business made delivery imperative was criticised severely. After discussion of the issue it was voted to adopt a resolution asking for restoration of afternoon mail deliveries. Copies of this resolution will be sent to the Massachusetts Senators, David I. Walsh and Marcus A. Coolidge, to Congressman Robert Luce, and Postmaster General Farley.

The subject of an adequate advertising medium at a reasonable expense was discussed at length. Although the matter of circulation and advertising newspapers was brought up it met with little favorable response from those present. The question of whether or not a plan could be devised to provide an adequate circulation for advertisers through the use of an existing medium was raised and a committee appointed to consider the matter.

Holiday and Wednesday afternoon summer closing was another of the many subjects discussed and indications that co-operation would be had on this issue through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce postponed a final decision on the matter.

School Janitor Discharged, Will Get Hearing

Henry Mullen of Auburn st., Auburdale, who was discharged last month from his position as a janitor at Newton High School appeared at school headquarters on Tuesday with the expectation that he would receive a hearing on his discharge. He was informed that the hearing will have to be held before the School Committee and a date was set on April 24th, for this matter. Mullen was also informed that he will have to secure a new counsel to represent him. He expected to be defended by Dennis M. Cronin, but Cronin is a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen and the City Charter forbids the Mayor or any member of the Aldermen serving as attorney for any employee of the city in a hearing of this kind.

PROMINENT CITIZENS AID TICKET CAMPAIGN OF LOCAL HORSE SHOW

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. B. Alden Thresher of Waban, a ticket committee is perfecting plans for the sale of one hundred boxes and thousands of admission and bleacher tickets for the Newton Charity Horse Show, which is to be held in Newton Centre on May 12 for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. and Mayor's Relief Fund. The charge for the boxes will be eight dollars, and each will seat six people. Admission will be fifty cents, and bleacher seats, twenty-five cents in addition to the admission charge. In consideration of the quality of the exhibition, which last year lasted from mid-morning to dusk, and in comparison with the charges made at similar shows, these rates are low enough to be unusually attractive.

Assisting Mrs. Thresher in the distribution of tickets are: Newton Centre: Dr. George R. Baxter, Miss Nancy Brigham, Mrs. Carl H. Cummings, Mr. Douglass B. Francis, Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis, Mr. Hugh Nawn, Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Pratt, Mr. Waldron H. Rand Jr., Mr. William H. Rice, Miss M. Louise Walworth, Mr. Gardner C. Walworth, Mrs. G. Horace Williams, Hahn's Drug Store, Mosher's Drug Store.

Only One Delivery Of Mail Daily In The Newtons

Graphic Begins Campaign To Restore Service

Residents of Newton and most business men of this city are receiving only one delivery of mail each day; this curtailed service started on Tuesday. It went into effect in all parts of the Boston postal district, as well as all over the country. It is a further and drastic step by Postmaster General Farley in the crippling of the postal service and taking from the people of the United States facilities provided in larger cities for over half a century and in most of the country for thirty and more years. The Newton Corner section of this city has had free delivery for over 40 years; the remainder of the city for 35 years. During all these years a large percentage of Newton residents had mail delivered to their homes three times daily; the remainder of the city had two deliveries of mail. For four months last year delivery of mail on Wednesday afternoons was omitted following an order by Farley. It is planned to continue the one delivery of mail a day until the last of next June. Certain business concerns in the city, such as manufacturing and financial companies and agencies of insurance and loan corporations are receiving three deliveries. This service is not extended to retail stores.

The latest move in curtailing mail service was made by the Postmaster General on the allegation that it is being done as a matter of economy to balance the budget of the Postoffice Department. As a matter of fact appropriations had already been made for the department which were supposed to have made provision to continue the service heretofore up to the 30th of next June. With one delivery of mail each day, any mail arriving at the Newton postoffices after 7 o'clock each morning, will not be delivered until the following day. Not only will this deprive persons of receiving important personal communications without undue delay, but it will seriously retard the conduct of retail business.

Letter carriers and postoffice clerks have been working 44 hours weekly. Farley has issued an order compelling each employee to take one day furlough each month. To bring about this day off, the employees working time is reduced two hours each week. In each office the two-hour lay-off is staggered among the carriers and clerks; so many carriers working one day a week two hours less than their regular schedule. The postal employees had a 15% reduction levied on their pay last year. Recently Congress voted to restore 5% of this cut. The latest order by Farley is equal to another 2 1/2% cut for the employees and abolition of service given to the American public for nearly a half century.

To fill out their eight hours on the days other than that on which they work their shortened schedule, letter carriers perform clerical duty in the postoffices and also make collections of mail from street boxes. The substitute letter carriers, some of whom have been obtaining a scant living for seven or eight years, are deprived of any work. These men, many thousands of them throughout the country, gave up their other occupations years ago to serve as substitutes with the reasonable expectation that they would be given permanent appointments to succeed regular carriers who were pensioned off or who died. As the regular carriers have left the service in recent years, their positions have not been filled and the substitutes have struggled along with small incomes and little hope. Now, their lot is made increasingly discouraging.

Obviously, Postmaster General Farley, who never had any postal experience prior to his appointment to the important position he now holds, does not realize that prior to his reign it

Boy Burglars Are Caught at Newton

Two Newton Corner boys, brothers, one 14 and the other 11 years of age were caught Saturday evening at 6:30 trying to force a door at the rear of the building, 272 Centre street, Newton, leading into the offices of the Central Railway Signal Company. They were apprehended by Raymond Hyson, janitor of the building who surprised them on a balcony. The older boy broke away from Hyson. On the person of the younger boy was found a screw-driver which fitted marks made on several other doors which had been forced recently at stores and offices at Newton Corner where breaks had been made. The boy was turned over to Patrolman Taaffe. He first gave a false name and address, but when his identity was learned his brother was also taken into custody. The pair would not admit having been involved in any of the other burglaries recently committed. The older boy is on a suspended sentence to Shirley. The younger boy was in the juvenile court once on a delinquency charge. They will be arraigned in the juvenile session of the Newton court on Friday. Patrolman Taaffe and Special Officer Feeley are investigating the case.

Vacation Camp at Nobscot

What to do in vacation time? True, many Scouts are away from town during school vacation periods, but there are many left around. To serve them a good time and to help them in Scouting, Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, is going to operate its first spring vacation camp at the Nobscot Reservation in Framingham and Sudbury this coming week.

The program will include work in 2nd and 1st Class requirements and possibly some outdoor Merit Badges, bridge building, woodcraft, campfire, gadget making, camp-fires, wide games and all the items that make a well-rounded Scout camp program. Mr. W. R. Speirs will be the Camp Director and will have such a staff as the number of Scouts there may demand. Sleeping quarters will be either cabins or tents, depending both on the weather and the choice of the Scouts there.

The cost will be nominal, $1 per day per Scout, if Camp provides food; 25 cents per day per Scout if he provides his own food, to pay for materials for crafts, for operating this particular camp and so on.

In addition, all indications are that several Troops will have Scouts there all or part of the week under their own adult leaders and operating their own programs.

It looks like a big week and a full week at the Nobscot Reservation.

Troop 3 Has Big Parents' Night

Troop 3 of the N. A. A., in Nonantum, had its second Parents' Night of the season at its regular meeting on Monday evening last, April 9th. The program was made out by the Patrol Leaders and staff in a joint meeting. It included rope-spinning by A. S. M. James Womboldt and Scribner George Monks, following a welcome to the parents by Mr. Charles Chasson, Chairman of Troop 3's Troop Committee. There were stunts by the "Pine Tree" Silver Fox, Lone Wolf and Mohawk Patrols; piano solos by Patrol Leader Ralph Barisano and by Scout Cupoli. Seascout Sullivan played a harmonica solo. Eighteen Scouts who had paid their registration fee were presented with registration cards in the Boy Scouts of America by Scoutmaster Bruce. Mr. Edward White, the new Senior Assistant Scoutmaster, was inducted into the Troop by the Patrol Leaders and the Staff. Following the program, refreshments were served.

The new Seascout Patrol, of which Mr. Jackson Kent is the Mate and Austin Blongastiner is the acting Cox'n, prepared the stage and lighting arrangements for the stage, which they improvised.

Troop 3 is well on the way towards becoming a unit in the first Group in the Council, and it will be named Group 3, N. A., and will include Cub Pack 3, Troop and Seascout Patrol 3. Mr. Henry Farrell, a member of the Troop Committee, has been appointed Cubmaster of the Pack and is now taking training preparatory to starting the Pack activity.

Last week-end, Mr. George H. Crosbie, Deputy Commissioner in charge of Nature Instruction, gave a course in nature to a group at Nobscot. He will start a second course at Nobscot this coming week-end.

D. A. R. Chapter Holds Last Card Party of Season

The last of three successful card parties for the benefit of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held on Thursday, April 12, at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Day, 154 Sargent st., Newton.

The first of these parties, which have been under the direction of Mrs. Holcombe J. Brown, Miss Nella J. Pearson, and Mrs. Arthur S. Tucker, was held in the Autumn at the home of Miss Florence Tower, Seminary av., Auburndale, whose gracious hospitality made the occasion most enjoyable.

In mid-winter, Mrs. Frederick J. Fessenden, executive of Lucy Jackson Chapter, opened her spacious home on Albemarle rd. for the second in this series of card parties. In spite of cold weather, a large number of guests were present.

Mrs. Frank A. Day, who is much interested in the activities of Lucy Jackson Chapter, extended the hospitality of her home for the last of these parties. One of the pleasing incidents of the afternoon was the presentation to the guests of bougainvilleas of Spring flowers from the famous Day conservatories.

At the 10:45 o'clock service in Lincoln Park Church the pastor, Rev. John Shade Franklin, will preach on the subject, "About Face—March!" The Vested Choirs will sing Gounod's "Lovely Apparition" and Mendelssohn's "If With All Your Hearts." NEWTON W. C. T. U.

Mrs. F. King Singesir well known in temperance organizations led the devotional service at the Mass Meeting for women held under the auspices of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the Unitarian Church, Newton Centre Sq.

Mrs. Grace M. Hamilton, President Middlesex County W. C. T. U. declared that repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment was brought about by the most shameful propaganda the world has ever known. Increasing drunkenness is proving that repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment has not repealed the liquor problem. The mere repeal of a law cannot solve a great social issue.

Rev. Helen Carlson, National organizer of the W. C. T. U. urged the Christian Womanhood of the nation to first pray as did the Crusade Mothers and then go out in the power of faith to fight drunkenness in the nation.

The meeting was sponsored by Mrs.

Walter Stevens, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Mrs. Everett C. Herrick, Mrs. William E. Huntington, Mrs. Charles Wood Bond, Mrs. William Butler, Mrs. John A. Groves, President Newton W. C. T. U.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The sale of Purity Brand extracts by which the Unit would derive benefit, has been postponed in order that it may not interfere with the Welfare Concert given by Newton Post April 26 and 27.

Junior's! Next meeting April 17, 3 p. m. at Memorial Building. Bring scissors, paste and cards prepared to make scrap books for the hospital. Drilling will be resumed to prepare for Decoration Day. Uniform cloth will be available.

Rotary Club

International Day was fittingly observed by the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Club when Noel G. Cottrell, the Exchange Teacher in the Newton High School from the Waverly Secondary School, Birmingham, England, spoke of the similarities in the traditions and ideals of the two English speaking nations.

Mr. Cottrell supplemented his talk by many humorous personal experiences. He expressed the hope that these two great nations would be the leaders in promoting international peace and understanding.

The club elected directors for the Rotary year 1934-35: Harry Hanson, Lyscom A. Bruce, Jr., James Melcher, Paul Elicker, Milton Heath, Aubrey Shurman, A. Norman Needy, and Frank Clark.

Auto Repair Men Organize To Aid Owners

An organization composed of men conducting automobile repair shops in the Newtons, Wellesley and Needham has been formed for the dual purpose of combating unfair competition in this business and aiding owners of automobiles in this section to obtain satisfactory service and repair work. Similar organizations of men in the automotive industry have been established in many other sections of the country. The local organization is known as the Automotive Service Men's Association of Newton, Wellesley and Needham. Since it was started several months ago about thirty-five automobile repair shops in this district have become affiliated. The president of this association is Don Fletcher of Newton; Gray Blandy of Newton, Vice President; Charles E. Mays of Newtonville, Secretary; R. W. Dwinall of Auburndale, Treasurer.

The association meets twice each month and the members inform one another of experiences they have gained in the many and constant changes in repairing new models of cars and the many new devices which are peculiar to the latest model automobiles. The members of this association are all owners of established shops which have proper tools and equipment to perform reliable repair work and servicing. They use standard parts on the cars and trucks they repair, and assure their patrons of efficient and dependable work. They believe in the policies of the NRA and seek to eliminate as far as possible unfair competition from men who are commonly known as "backyard mechanics," men who possess neither shops, equipment or proper tools and who use "bargain store parts" in the work they do on automobiles.

The new association has an official shield which will be displayed on all the shops which hold membership. A list of the names and addresses of the garage repair shops included in this association appears in the advertising columns.

OUR MAIL SERVICE

The longer the public patiently accepts the rulings of the Postoffice Department restricting the delivery of mail the more restrictions there will be introduced. We believe the latest regulation eliminating all residential mail deliveries in practically every community is unwarranted and unjustified. Particularly is this so in Newton. The Garden City has been and still is entitled to the most efficient and regular service possible.

The plea is made that the present restriction is necessary in order to balance the budget—that it is temporary until June 30th. It is our belief that appropriations were made last year to carry the postoffice department up to the end of the present fiscal year, June 30th. If it is temporary and the public accepts it with indifference it stands every chance of being a permanent order.

The past few months have indicated that better times are returning to some degree. Intercommunication between business houses, between business houses and residences, between residences, and in fact for all kinds of mail is an essential part of business. As we see it the latest restriction can readily affect the return of better business.

With this in mind we intend to do our part in proving to the Postoffice department that the residents and business men of Newton rightfully desire restoration of efficient mail service. We cannot accomplish our goal without the help of the public. We ask you to support us and return the coupon at the bottom of this page to our office.

BETTER MOVIES

At a meeting early this week the Better Movies for Newton Council was formed. The group forming the council is comprised of prominent ladies in Newton, representatives of the clergy, the press, and representatives of other groups interested in the improvement of the community. The efforts of the council which elected Mayor Weeks as its head, should have the support of every right-thinking citizen.

never was seriously attempted to make the postoffice department self supporting. This branch of government activity has been conducted at a heavy loss. It was one of the few tangible services rendered by the Federal Government to the people of the United States in return for the large amounts taken from them in taxes to support the government of this country. It is difficult for the public to understand how President Roosevelt can condone this latest action on Farley's part after private employers of labor have been continually exhorted to assist in recovery of prosperity by hiring more men and creating more work. The crippling of the postal service is not alone a very serious handicap to business men who are sincerely doing their part in the endeavor to overcome the depression. Men who are honestly trying to make the NRA program a success. This drastic curtailment of the mail service undoubtedly has an extremely bad psychological effect on the people in general. It surely does not tend to make them believe that conditions are improving; that we are on the way to normal times again.

There is but one way to stop the continuance of the program of deficiency in the postal service, or even further deteriorating this governmental activity which has for generations been the pride and assistance of the American people. And this way is for the public to make a concerted protest. Accordingly in the editorial page the GRAPHIC prints a coupon to be filled out by its readers who wish to protest against the deprivation of postal service. Fill out this coupon and mail it to the GRAPHIC office.

Beat Taxi Driver, Is Fined $20

James McLaren of 17 Melbourne avenue, Newtonville, and his brother, Thomas McLaren of Millis, were each fined $20 in the Newton court on Tuesday for assaulting Charles Lucas of Hovey street, Newton, a taxi driver. On the night of February 20, one of the stormiest nights of the past winter, the two McLarens engaged Lucas at Newton Corner to drive them to Melbourne avenue and then tendered him 50 cents in payment, although Lucas had told them it would cost a higher fee for the trip, according to his testimony. Lucas said one of the McLarens then hit him and both scuffled with him. He said they also took the keys out of his car so that it was stalled at Melbourne avenue for many hours. The two appealed and were released in $100 bail each.

ONE THING... ...AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

Patriot's Day next Thursday. Not a bad idea if we devoted a small part of it to a comparison of the modern brand of patriotism with that revealed at Lexington and Concord in 1775.

Oddments

For sheer nerve commend me to the U. S. Postoffice Department. Always asking us to do something to speed up service and then turning round and lopping off a delivery or two. And what happens to us is nothing compared to what is done to clerks and carriers. You read most every day how their pay has been given another slash or their hours lengthened. But now the Department asks the public to refrain from using those dinky little envelopes. Claim they are too small to run through canceling machines and often get lost when smothered by larger letters. This may be so; I know nothing about it. The only time I have ever received any of this teenie-weenie stationery was to inform me of the birth of another human being and prospective victim of our postal system. Maybe others were put in the mail addressed to me and never arrived for one or several of the various reasons set forth by the Department. Probably this appeal from the Postmaster General is a just one but I'm getting tired of so many "please mail early," "please do not do this and so," etc. How about yourself?

In places we walk every day or so we soon find our footsteps accustomed to conditions and if there is a rise or fall in the grade we automatically step up or down with grace and agility. As one enters the lobby of the Massachusetts Senate one has to look sharp. It used to be because there was a step downwards. Regulars got used to it but visitors often tumbled. Now the situation is reversed and because a ramp has been constructed to obviate the drop. Visitors take it easily but regulars can't seem to get used to it. They march in, allow for the step down and go plunging along the ramp. There's many a good laugh to be had if you've got time to hang around, providing, of course, it amuses you to see other people in trouble.

It Happened in Newton

While mother was away visiting her sister in New Jersey Father found more time for the radio programs. It may have been that his sudden and deep interest was due to the fact that he was lonesome but at any rate he studied what the various stations had to offer and followed this up by giving close attention at the designated hour. It happened that one of the most attractive announcements was set for 11 p. m., which is a late hour for father, who likes to go to bed fairly early.

Brother and sister, the other members of the household, had their interests for that evening. Brother remained at home to continue ploughing his way through "Anthony Adverse" and sister had gone to a dance under the escort of the young man next door. Brother sat in his room while father was downstairs at the loud-speaker which is in the living-room.

It must have been that father was tired. At any rate he fell asleep at the switch, which was not turned, and was dozing peacefully when at midnight or thereabouts sister and the young man next door returned. Brother had gone to bed. The returned dancers made as little noise as possible but they did whisper a few sentences when the young man next door suggested that she accompany him while he took his dog for a short walk. Such a nice night and all that sort of thing to which she agreed. Father waked just in time to hear the front door close behind the couple. He called out but got no response. He called again without results. "Somebody trying to break in," he thought.

Exploring the lower floor without results he decided on a burglar hunt. He needed reinforcements and so managed to drag his sleep-sodden son and then made a combined search from cellar to attic. Nothing doing.

Brother decided to call the police. He had no sooner hung up the receiver than faint voices were heard on the veranda. Father motioned brother to say nothing. Both put on their coats and hats. Father had his favorite walking stick and brother an Indian club that father had used way back in his college days. The subdued conversation outside irritated both. They lunged for action. Finally they decided to open the door suddenly and rush the intruders. An instant later father and brother had set upon sister and the young man next door. The dog started barking and in the midst of it came the police prowling. No casualties, but much explaining by the four principals and considerable wondering by the cops. Father is off late radio programs—at least until mother returns.

Getting There on Time

If "Procrastination is the thief of time" he is one of the most popular rogues in the world. However, it doesn't pay to get too chummy with him. His arch enemy, "Punctuality," is, after all, the better friend as was proved by the experience of a Newton man. This fellow citizen of ours seemed never to be able to keep an appointment at the precise hour. His importance made no difference and he always showed up from five to 50 minutes late.

He met his match did this thoughtless young man. Having decided to receive the attention of a physical culture expert and masseur he purchased a ticket entitling him to a course of treatments. Those who have enjoyed these ministrations will tell you they are beneficial. Others sneeringly call them "lazy man's exercise." Nevertheless they instill pep

FINANCE

Again may we emphasize the fact that the School Department is committed to the proposition that thrifty and careful administration of public education is required as the only basis upon which the services of education can be maintained. That this is more than a pious declaration is borne out by the gross figures of expenditures for 1933. The gross operating budget for 1933 was reduced by $127,675.42 or 9% of the amount appropriated for 1932. At the close of the fiscal year, of the amount appropriated, $7,260.21, net, was returned to the city treasury as unexpended. It must be said in this connection that a similar record is not possible for 1934 because of necessary additions to the salary account, covering salaries of additional teachers and regular scheduled step increases in salaries. A restoration of the 7½% salary cut, in effect since January 1, 1933, would, of course, bring costs back approximately to the 1932 level, plus normal increases based on growth.

There is one fact concerning school budgets and costs which is not generally understood and which should have some mention here. The amount expended represents gross costs. As a matter of actual fact the net expenditures are considerably less than would appear. In 1933 our appropriation for regular schools was $1,223,396.00. During that period, however, we received nearly $100,000 or 8% back from the state as reimbursement and from tuition and other sources.

The trade school appropriation for 1933 was $75,689.00. The actual expenditure was $73,701.00. From the state as reimbursement we received $37,303.00, from federal funds $2,416.00, from tuition $11,319.00, and cash receipts were $669.00, or a total of $51,709.00 in receipts, leaving a net cost to the city of $21,992.00. Because all receipts go directly into the city treasury, school appropriations and expenditures always appear as gross items and the actual net cost of operating schools receives little or no publicity.

HIGH-SPOTTING EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS

Education as Growth

"The most important, most helpful, most deceiving, most confusing, most neglected fact in Education is growth; most important that healthy growth be achieved, most helpful because the plasticity and vigor of the growth period offer multiple opportunities for education, deceiving because education is constantly mistaking for its own accomplishment what has really come about through maturing, confusing because growth involves constant change, neglected because it is so obvious and yet so subtle."

This striking statement emphasizes for us the central fact in the "new" education. The teachers* in the Newton schools are becoming increasingly sure that teaching in developing procedure and method, through subjects and methods we create that environment of influence and activity which must nurture and stimulate growth—growth in personality, in character, in usefulness and in happiness.

In high-spotting activity and progress in the Newton schools for 1933 we must have in mind this point of view and this emphasis.

and are generally approved by the medical profession.

The expert chosen by our Newton friend stands as one of the best in the country but if you have an appointment with him you must be there on time. Otherwise—but let this sermonette tell its own story. The "patient" thought it would be great to interview the masseur at 5:45 p. m. This would have meant going directly from the office. The day and hour were fixed but our hero yielded to the urgings of his wife and went from the office directly to an uptown club. It was 7:40 when he reached the physical culture studio.

The expert was polite in his greeting and added, "May I have your card?" It was handed over and the next thing our friend knew the masseur had punched a hole in it and handed him back with the observation, "I hope you enjoyed your treatment." The other stood in dumb astonishment. The joke was on him and he had to take it. Five dollars for nothing, you say. Hardly! Wasn't he given a lesson in the almost lost art of getting there on time?

Under The Gilded Dome

Unsuccessful attempts were made in both the House and Senate this week to substitute a bill for a State rating board for compulsory automobile insurance for the adverse report of the Committee on Insurance. The report of the committee was brought into the Senate the latter part of last week and came up for debate on Monday's calendar in that body. Senator Finnegan, author of the bill, moved to substitute the bill for the report of the committee. The opponents of the measure claimed that the bill was an attempt to get a flat rate for automobile insurance and that under the bill the commissioner of insurance would be given two assistants at $5000 each to perform duties which the commissioner is now performing. On a roll-call vote of 21 to 15 substitution was refused and the bill was not taken up for debate on Wednesday and the matter was disposed of for this year.

On Wednesday the committee report came over to the House where Rep. MacDonald of Chelsea led an attempt to substitute the bill there. After considerable debate he was unsuccessful on a roll-call vote of 138 to 69 with Representatives Baker, Brimblecom and Luitwieler of Newton among those voting against the measure.

On Monday the House of Representatives passed to be engrossed a bill reducing from 3 to 2 per cent the amount of interest on small loans. The bill was substituted last week for an adverse committee report. On Monday after some debate the House voted by 105 to 94 for the bill. Representatives Baker, Brimblecom and Luitwieler of Newton voted with the minority.

On a roll-call vote of 106 to 89 the House refused to accept a report of the Committee on Ways and Means recommending that a bill prohibiting State printing in state and county institutions be rejected. Newton's three members voted to reject the bill. The small amount of printing done in these institutions would give employment to less than 50 printers throughout the year.

Another bill which experienced considerable discussion this week in the lower branch of the Legislature was a bill prohibiting marathon dancing. The bill was once reported by the committee on Mercantile Affairs and later recommitted. It came out of the committee a second time with an adverse report. On Monday after lively debate the bill was substituted for the committee's report but on Tuesday after another debate the bill was killed by a rising vote of 91 to 39. Opponents of the bill claimed that there was sufficient law now to cover the practice and that it was a matter for the individual city or town to regulate for itself.

On Wednesday an attempt was made in the House to pass a bill increasing the salary of the Commissioner of Civil Service from $5000 to $7500. Rep. Arthur Hansen of Waltham of the Committee on Public Service defended the committee's report against the bill. After some debate the bill was defeated by a roll-call vote of 97 to 102. Newton's three representatives were recorded against the bill.

Among the chief matters given public hearings this week were the petitions for the forming of state codes and giving the state the power to enforce NRA codes. Representatives of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts and of the State Branch of the A. F. of L. joined in opposing the measures.

On Wednesday the House of Representatives refused to pass a bill further defining drugstores and prohibiting stores not licensed as drugstores from advertising under such a name. Representative Besette of New Bedford who favored the bill introduced an amendment which did not prove satisfactory to the opponents of the bill and it was then defeated. Rep. Besette then sought to have the bill recommitted but again was defeated. He gave notice before adjournment of the House on Wednesday that he would seek reconsideration the next day. Yesterday the House reconsidered its vote of Wednesday and then recommitted the bill to the Public Health Committee.

At the end of last week the 1934 Legislature had reported on 1,121 of the 1,767 matters referred to it. This figure constitutes about 64 per cent as against a 60 per cent mark a year ago and an 82 per cent figure two years ago. The present session of the General Court still had 646 matters to report on the first of the week and it is considered likely that it will be somewhat after the first of June before the session is ended.

A bill regulating the employment of armed guards for the protection of persons employed as strike-breakers which was substituted some time ago for an adverse report of the Committee on Labor and Industries was brought out of the Committee on Bills in the Third Reading yesterday. An amendment by a new bill was offered by Rep. Harry Brown of Billerica, Republican whip of the House, but action was postponed until Monday in order that the new bill could be printed and the members of the House given the opportunity to study it. It is expected that it will provide much debate next week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 15. The Golden Text is: "I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord" (Jeremiah 30:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that we may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:15,16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let unselfishness, goodness, mercy, justice, health, holiness, love, the kingdom of heaven—reign within us, and sin, disease, and death will diminish until they finally disappear" (p. 248).

Arrested for Drunken Driving and Not Having License

Walter McGann of 25 Central street, Waltham was arrested on Monday by Patrolman Barr who was doing traffic duty to protect school children crossing Watertown street at Pearl street, Nonantum. In the Newton court on Tuesday Barr testified that he leaped on the running board of the truck driven by McGann and placed the latter under arrest after the truck had nearly hit some children. McGann was also charged with drunkenness and driving without a license. His case was continued to April 16.

What Price Superstition?

SUPERSTITION costs China a million dollars annually. The Peiping Educational Museum is backing a movement to divert into more useful channels money now wasted on tokens in order to obtain favor.

China has nothing on America. The findings of two university professors reveal that 98% of us are superstitious.

Love and Sacrifice Features of Play "The Music Master"

"The Music Master", which is to be produced by the Newton Dramatic Club on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 20 and 21st, by The Newton Dramatic Club in the Newton Centre Woman's Club House is a distinct contribution to dramatic circles as it was the outstanding favorite of its decade. Many will remember old Herr Von Barwig in his velvet coat and with his violin case under his arm as played by David Warfield. Many will remember the spaghetti dinner of the first act and the rollicking ston songs of the three musicians. The part of Miss Houston, the boarding housekeeper, who had known better days, will be acted by Mrs. Joseph C. Fuller. Marie Temple played it in the original company. The story has for its plot the search by the distinguished concertmaster of Dresden for his wife and little daughter, who had disappeared twenty years ago. In New York he finds the daughter acted by Mariada Comer. Sympathy is felt for him in the scene where his love for her proves too great for him to reveal his true relations to her and so make necessary the sacrifice of her wealthy surroundings. Many will remember the sadness, but the gay joviality of the three fiddlers. The humorous love scenes of Poonie the German and Kitty make for continuous bursts of laughter. The play is set in lower New York in the present. Theodore will furnish the gowns.

Mrs. Wm. C. Anderson is in charge of properties. Mrs. Ralph Boyd is costume chairman. Mary Curtis Cobb is music chairman.

Bolton Wilder is stage manager and electrical director. Mrs. Everett W. Varney coaches and produces the play.

Mrs. John Hiller plays the part of the Music Master. The cast includes Lyman V. Banker, James M. Hawkes, Henry A. Kievenaar, Lillian Rice, Donald Cummins, Wilson Walker, Ralph Arvensen, Edgar S. Swail, Baroness Von Tippleskirch, Mrs. Harry P. Forte, Samuel Tuthill, Jr., Mr. Harlan E. Moore, Philip Fowler, Elizabeth Follett, June Wilbar, Tracy Manly.

Fascinating Farce By The Village Players

"Jack Straw" by W. Somerset Maugham, the English playwright, will be given at the Newton Centre Union Parish House on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, April 25th, 26th and 27th at 8:15 p. m. The author has chosen a plot which turns upon masquerade for its theme, and by his inimitable and subtle humor makes fun with and at society in such a way as to cause the audience many an appreciative chuckle.

The lead will be played by Wesley M. Dynes. Others in the cast include Helen Brown, Louise Hawkes, Francis Ordway, Hazel H. Sholley, Mrs. R. W. Turner, Ernest Braithwaite, Edward Griffin, R. H. Hodgson, C. L. Pierce, Robert Polhemus, Edwin D. Smith, Robert Wolfe, Irving C. Whittemore and Glenn Wilson.

The play is being coached by E. Irving Locke, a member of the Advisory Board of Village Players. The production is in charge of Mrs. J. Jarvis Preble and Mrs. Hope Thaxter. Preble, assisted by Mrs. Mrs. William C. Noetzel, art directors.

The impromptu minstrel show and other entertainment features presented by members of the St. John's Men's Club on Friday and Saturday evenings in St. John's parish house was enthusiastically received by a large audience last night.

Ansley, Herbert N. McGill, Charles H. Meeker, and Walter Weldig. A chorus of twenty-four was headed by Rev. Raymond Lang.

Several solos were offered by Miss Marie Sladen, and little Olivia Bigelow entertained with several dance numbers.

Rice, Mrs. John Kobrock, Riley Hampton, Milton Heath, and Dr. Louis H. George. A short skit, entitled "Things and Stuff," was presented by Bob and Bus Lawrence and Arthur Lathrop. "H. M. S. Pinafore" At Grace Church

Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera "H. M. S. Pinafore" will be presented by the young people of Grace Church, Newton, on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 13 and 14 in the Parish house hall.

"Pinafore" was first produced in London, England and proved to be the most popular opera ever produced in that country. In the United States it was for years the rage and still is a prime favorite. Words and music rarely go so well together as in "Pinafore." This plus the many pat phrases with which the libretto is sprinkled have made it one of the best liked of Gilbert and Sullivan's works.

The production has been directed by Charles N. Sladen and William V. M. Fawcett. Those included in the cast are: Edith Stearns, Lucy Bradshaw, Alyce Kee, Miriam Rix, Eleanor Heskey, Evelyn Beck, Ethel Jennings, Martha Kee, Doris Cook, Florence Geiger, Gladys Geiger, Frances Guion, Lillian Deans, Phyllis Alexander, John Bowen, Robert Ewart, Parker Eddy, Daniel Goodridge, Arthur Dauten, George Brown, Frederick Brooks, William Brown, Royal Tuthill, Clifford Kirtredge, Daniel White, Jr.

A growing list of distinguished speakers who will discuss topics of vital national concern, and the presentation of Resolutions on current legislative matters, together with novel entertainment features, promise to make the Council Meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Hot Springs, Arkansas, May 21st to 26th, memorable for its stimulation and productivity. Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president, will preside over the sessions.

Two Resolutions, each calling for direct action on a current national problem, and three others directing intensive study by clubwomen of facts and issues involved in pending legislation, will be offered: one endorsing the general principle and purpose of the Copeland Pure Food and Drugs Bill, (S. 2500); another firmly opposes the return of the saloon and recommends that temperance instruction be emphasized in our public school system. Studies of unemployment insurance and old age pensions by the State Federations in preparation for understanding and acting upon the proposals that are expected in various State Legislatures next year, are recommended, with study material supplied on this, and on two others, the Equal Rights Amendment, and crime prevention and control measures, leading to the support of their enactment into legislation by Congress.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Saturday afternoon, April 7th, in the Club House on Washington Park, at a very successful party for the children of members and friends of the Newtonville Woman's Club, gales of laughter and exclamations of surprise and wonder greeted an unusually clever magician as he performed his repertoire of tricks before the very eyes of the children and of a few accompanying elders. After many unsolved feats of magic the children also were entertained by several reels of motion pictures of animals. To make the party a complete success quantities of delicious ice-cream and cake were served while favors in the form of whistles, balloons, and other appropriate toys, were passed around. Mrs. Albert P. Everts, of the Ways and Means committee, planned and conducted the party.

Professor Arnold M. Davis, of Massachusetts State Agricultural College at Amherst, gave an instructive and intensely interesting illustrated lecture on "Garden Maintenance" on Tuesday afternoon, the 10th, with information as to care of lawns, selection and cultivation of plants and shrubs, control of insects and pests, and much valuable data to help the plant and garden lover. He said that right now more good work can be done in cleaning up than in anything else. Some contributing factors for the success of a good garden are time and a succession of bloom; that any garden, large or small, needs careful planning to lend character and accent; and that with endless patience and any amount of toil everyone should have a completely satisfying result.

Mrs. Earle J. Carleton, of the Music committee, entertained with original piano solos. Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, chairman of the Conservation of Natural Resources committee had charge of the afternoon.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Mrs. John Heibek, chairman of the Day at the Tuesday meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club, carried out the idea of Art Week with a very appropriate program. She first introduced Norman Foster, the young man to whom the State Federation awarded the prize given through its Music department, and he played three piano solos. Mrs. Heibek then called attention to the collection of drawings and paintings on exhibit at that time, which were done by Miss Helen Jackson, the recipient of the scholarship which the Art committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club raised last year under Mrs. Heibek's direction as its chairman.

Mrs. Heibek then introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Franklin Porter, Craftsman, who took as his topic "The Romance of Silver," and after a history of the craft of silversmith, Mr. Porter gave an actual demonstration. (Continued on page 9)

Auburndale Woman's Club
 Business and Professional Group

New officers were elected at the Annual Meeting of the Business and Professional Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club last Tuesday evening. A dinner at Walter's in Brookline preceded the meeting, with the president of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Ernest Drew, and one of the Senior Club directors, Miss Anne Bunker, as guests.

Miss Ruth Sawyer, the secretary, in her annual report, announced that this small group had contributed fifty large stockings filled with fruit, candy, and toys, to the Welfare Bureau at Christmas time, and sent two hundred and forty-seven articles, such as dolls, stuffed animals, toys, games and jewelry, to the Canton Home for Crippled Children.

The retiring chairman, Miss Lilian Gerold, thanked the group for their splendid co-operation during her two years of office, and handed the gavel to her successor, Miss Susan Philbrook, who conducted the rest of the meeting. Plans for the coming year were discussed. Miss Cora Capstick was elected vice-chairman; Miss Alice Gilpatrick, treasurer; and Miss Ruth Sawyer re-elected as secretary. Mrs. Rufus Estabrook and Miss Anne Bunker were asked to serve again as directors.

Woman Sues City for Injuries Due to Fall on Sidewalk

A suit against the City of Newton was tried in the district court before Judge Weston on Wednesday. The plaintiff was Rose Muscara of Watertown and she sues for damages to repay her for injuries received when she fell on a sidewalk at Centre street, Newton Corner on May 5, 1932. It is alleged that there was a depression in the sidewalk, that it had been there for a considerable length of time and that the city had been given due notice of this defect. Mrs. Muscara had made a claim which was acted upon by the Board of Aldermen and rejected. Judge Weston reserved his decision.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D.A.R.

The April meeting of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held on Monday, April 9, at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls.

The regent, Mrs. E. B. Parker, presided at the short business meeting at which reports of the State Conference were read by the delegates.
Mrs. Norman F. Pratt gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on early Virginia history and "Colonial Williamsburg and Its Restoration." The talk was illustrated by slides showing the cleverness with which these old buildings in this Colonial Capital of Virginia have been reconstructed through the generosity of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.
A social hour, under the direction of Mrs. Charles R. Lynde and her committee of hostesses, followed.
Mrs. Frank A. Day and Mrs. Frederic W. Bakeman assisted at the tea table, which was decorated with a large bowl of most unusual Anthurium from the conservatories of Mrs. Day.

... THE ... NEW NEWTON DIRECTORY IS NOW BEING DELIVERED

Do not try to economize by using the old book. It will be expensive in both time and money on account of the great number of changes that have taken place in the last two years.
The new book has nearly 4000 more names, or an increase of 9%, which is unusual for a city the size of Newton. In compiling the Alphabetical Section alone changes were made in two out of three names in the previous issue.
A new feature is the arrangement of the House Directory Section which, instead of having all of the streets in one Alphabetical list, is made up of five sections, with a map preceding each section, as follows:

NEWTON AND NEWTONVILLE
NEWTON CENTRE AND CHESTNUT HILL
WEST NEWTON AND AUBURNDALE
NEWTON HIGHLANDS AND UPPER FALLS
WABAN AND LOWER FALLS

In this department, Property owners are designated by a symbol following the name.
The book contains a wealth of information about the city that is not found in any other publication, and the price is only $6.00, less than two cents a day, if ordered before publication. After delivery the price will be $8.00.

Auburndale Folk Object to Colonial Oil Co. Station

Protest Against New Building At Com. Avenue and Woodbine St.

Considerable time was occupied at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night by a hearing on the petition of the Colonial Oil Company for a permit to erect an office building and lubrication at its station, 2246 Commonwealth ave., near Woodbine st., Auburndale. This hearing was scheduled to start at 7.45, but the Aldermen, with customary tardiness did not assemble for their meeting until 8.15.

Charles W. Bartlett of Dedham appeared as attorney for the petitioners. He said that the petition might appear to some to involve a change of zoning but that it really is an extension of a non-conforming use. He commented that in the past it had been ruled in Newton that a single lot of land cannot be changed in zone from residence to business unless it is contiguous to a business zone. He said that as a matter of law the Aldermen have the right to grant or refuse to grant the petition. He explained that the Colonial Oil Company has operated a station at this locus for some years but has had no building on the lot and has had to rent the use of an office in an adjoining garage. The company desires to develop the station and make it a first class unit. It proposes to erect a building 26 by 27 feet which will provide an office, lubrication and other facilities. The station will be improved in appearance, a cement walk will be built, new drives laid out and grass planted.

Mr. Bartlett stated that he had consulted with neighbors and as a result of their suggestions the petitioners agree to modify the original plan. The somewhat conspicuous colors which are ordinarily used in Colonial stations will be modified, no bright lights will be installed on the outside of the building and the grease pit will be enclosed. He said that some residents of the neighborhood had been misled into opposing the petition by having been misinformed that an attempt is being made to change the zone. He asserted that Mr. Warren, who owns the garage adjoining, has been active in fermenting opposition to the petition because he would lose the rent of the office space now used in the garage by the Colonial Company, and he remarked that Warren is not a resident of this city.

John Ross of 60 Woodbine st. favored the granting of the petition. He said he lives directly back of the garage and filling station and both are eyesores. He said the proposed building will improve the appearance of the station. Mr. Ross said when the Colonial Oil Company first approached the neighbors, nearly all favored the petition. Then Warren started a counterpetition and many of the neighbors then signed an opposition petition. He commented that Warren can't reasonably oppose the petition when he owns another station a couple of miles away, and, according to reports is negotiating for the purchase of a second station at Auburndale. Others who favored the granting of the petition were—Ross Guilford of 68 Woodbine st., Roy Miller of 49 Woodbine st., Charles Almy of 18 Woodbine st., C. A. Specht of Bourne st. and Harold Smith of Commonwealth ave.

Henry W. Packard of Wellesley appeared as attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Warren who own the garage at 2246 Commonwealth ave.; adjoining the filling station. Mr. Packard spoke at great length regarding the details of the Newton zoning ordinance and the bearing of Section 562 of the ordinance on the proposed building. He argued that the present petition is (Continued on Page 4)

IMPROVEMENT ASSN. AT NEWTON CENTRE THANKS POLICE DEPT.

Corrects Impressions of Unofficial Reports of Meeting

In last week's local newspapers an unofficial report of the annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association was published which has evoked considerable comment. In that report was a statement regarding a vote being taken to appoint a committee to investigate an alleged failure of the police department to apprehend speeding motorists on Beacon st., Newton Centre. In view of the inaccuracy of this statement officers of the Association this week authorized the sending of a letter to Chief of Police Hughes of the Newton department.

The letter reads as follows:

April 17, 1934.

Mr. Michael T. Hughes,
Chief of Police,
West Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Our Association held its Annual Meeting April 11, 1934, and unfortunately an unofficial account of the gathering was printed in some of our local papers, reporting that "It was voted to appoint a Committee to investigate the Newton Police Department." No such motion was proposed by any member nor such a vote passed.

We should like to take this occasion to thank the Police Department for the co-operation which it has always shown when we have called matters to its attention.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) JOSEPH T. BISHOP,
Secretary.

(Editor's Note—We believe that an explanation is due our readers for the report of the meeting as published in our last week's issue. The report as printed was sent to us shortly before going to press, was presumed to have come from authorized sources, and due to the fact that our press time had been advanced because of the elimination of afternoon mail delivery was not edited according to our usual practices. We offer our sincere apologies to our readers for publishing the inaccurate report and also to those persons affected by the article.)

Newton Business Men To Assist in National Recovery

Meeting Monday Under Direction of Local Board

A well organized and determined campaign is being started by Newton business men to assist the National Recovery Administration. The following letter has been sent out by Rupert C. Thompson, chairman of the Newton Compliance Board:

Newton Local Retail Code Authority Gentlemen:

Acting under authority of the National Retail Code Authority of Washington I am asking you as a member of your trade to attend an organization meeting at Bray Hall, Newton Centre on Monday night, April 23rd at 8 p. m. to organize the Newton Local Retail Trade Authority.

As complete information will be given on that night I will not go into details at this time, except to say that this will bring under one head all the retail business of the city no matter what code they operate under. It will also give us our own governing body so that we may administer the several codes to the best advantage of the business men of Newton.

While I have asked you to represent your trade, I will appreciate it if you will induce others in your line to come also. If it becomes impossible for you to attend the meeting be sure that you send a substitute. It is essential that at least one representative of each branch of the Retail trade be represented, as the organization will be completed and the necessary officers elected that night. We want to have everything going in high by May 1st.

May I have your assurance in enclosed envelope (no postage necessary) that you will attend the meeting.

RUPERT C. THOMPSON,
Chairman Newton N. R. A.
Compliance Board.

Bovine Casualties Numerous During Days When Railroad Was New To Newton; First Train 100 Years Ago

Monday, April 16th, 100th Anniversary of Arrival of "Meteor" Pulling First Train From Boston; Three Trips Daily Was First Schedule; Open Coaches and Wood Burning Locomotives Comprised Rolling Stock of Newton's First Railroad Service

Last Monday, April 16th, was the 100th anniversary of the running of the first railroad train between Boston and Newton. In connection with this event, a well known resident of this city, a former railroad man, wrote the following interesting article:

In April, 1834, the following notice appeared in the Boston Courier: "The public are respectfully informed that the Boston & Worcester Railroad is now open for the conveyance of passengers. The cars will start from the Depot at 10 o'clock A.M. and 3 1/2 P.M. daily for the present for Newton. Returning the cars will leave Newton at a quarter past 11 A.M. and a quarter before 5 P.M. Tickets may be obtained or seats secured at the Company's office at the Depot, No. 617 Washington Street, or of the Master of the Cars at Newton. Office hours—8 o'clock A.M. until 1 1/2 P.M. and 3 o'clock until 7 P.M. By Order of the President and Directors, F. A. Williams, Clerk."

The track, its driver, who came from England, stepped upon the platform with almost the airs of a juggler, or a professor of chemistry, placed his hand upon a lever, and with a slight move of it, the engine started at a speed worthy of the companion of the "Rocket," amid the shouts and cheers of the multitude. It gave me such a start that my hair seemed to start from the roots, rather than to stand on end. "The cars were like old-fashioned stage coaches, entered from the sides, and standing high on spoked wheels; and the brakemen, sitting on coach boxes, regulated the speed by pressing their feet on levers attached to the wheels, like the brakes on mountain wagons."

The trips at this time were made chiefly by the "Meteor," an engine imported by the then president of the Boston & Worcester Railroad Company, Nathan Hale, father of Edward Everett Hale. The station at Newton Corner was in a small wooden building, part of which was used engines—heard to terrible advantage in the stillness of the Sabbath. Sel-dom, if ever before, has the railroad company bestowed such cool contempt on public sentiment. One thing however, is certain already, that not one in fifty, of the population on the line of the road, desires a Sabbath train."

Originally it was planned that the railroad should go through Watertown, Waltham and Weston, but the settlers in those towns objected very strenuously, so for that reason and through the efforts of William Jackson, a prominent citizen of Newton, the Railroad Company was finally prevailed upon to build the road through the "wild lands" of Newton. The track was laid with English rail weighing 40 lbs. to the yard, set in cast iron chairs resting on wooden cross-ties, the ends of which rested on broken or rubble stone laid in two parallel trenches running lengthwise of the track. In some sections the ends of the ties rested

This took place on April 16, 1834, and thus do we commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first train service for Newton. Another train was immediately put on, leaving Boston at 6 A.M. and Newton at 7 A.M., making three trains of from two to eight cars each way daily except Sunday. The trip was usually made in 28 minutes, or a speed of about 15 miles per hour. The cars accommodated twenty passengers each. For thirteen days in April there were carried an average of 222 passengers daily. The following month the daily average was 310 passengers. The fare was 37 1/2 c.

The inauguration of this train service is chronicled in King's Handbook of Newton in the following language:

"The railroad service of the Worcester Railroad began on April 16, 1834 when the 'Meteor,' a locomotive built by George Stevenson in England, made three trips each way daily between Boston and Newton, carrying from two to eight coaches on each trip. This fiery little engine and its companion, the 'Rocket,' were constructed with great care and finish by transatlantic machinists. An eye-witness reported: 'Placed upon by a harness-maker. Newton Corner had originally been known as Bacon's Corner. Afterward it became Angier's Corner, but the railroad company called it Newton Corner. In September, 1834, when the railroad extended its service to Hopkinton (now Ashland) Newtonville was known as Hull's Crossing and West Newton was Squash End and later West Parish. Newton Corner was composed of two stores, a blacksmith shop, a tavern, a few dwellings, and the small wooden building used as a station and the local harness-maker. The whole town had a population of around 3,500.

No Sunday trains were run until November, 1849. In the American Railway Times, published in Boston, and the issue of November 5, 1849, we read as follows:

"The die is cast. The Directors of the Boston & Worcester Railroad have at length decided to run a train of cars from Newton to Boston on the Sabbath! Tomorrow, if that enterprising Board can complete the arrangements so soon, the dwellers of all the quiet villages along the line of this road will be greeted by the thunder of cars and the scream of on 3-inch planks running lengthwise, with supporting pieces of plank under the joints. There was a path for horses between the rails.

The engine "Meteor" was the first locomotive to turn a wheel in Massachusetts. The wheels were of wood with flanged metal tires. Other engines used in the early Newton service had such names as "Jupiter," "Mercury," "Comet," "Rocket" and "Yankee." In an old "Journal" kept at the engine house in 1834 and after, are recorded some interesting items concerning the operations of these engines. For instance (copying the original spelling, etc.) "Engine Yankee. When coming around Parker's Hill for'd Shaft of Engine came apart in center where it had been attempted to be welded by Mr. Tufts but was not. Passengers bro't in by horses & engine also."

"Engine Mercury. Brighton. Cow on track. Went over hir and broke both supply pipes."

"Engine Jupiter: On Needham curve ran over a cow; kill'd hir. No damage."

"Engine Rocket. Hauling gravel. Run over drunken man. Sum bruised —is getting better."

Waban Youth Is Found Guilty of Reckless Driving

Judge Recommends Bessey's License Be Revoked 3 Yrs.

Paul M. Bessey, 17, of 51 Waban ave., Waban, was found guilty in the Newton court on Wednesday of driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. He was fined $100, given a suspended jail sentence of two months and Judge Allen stated that he would ask the Registrar of Motor Vehicles to suspend Bessey's license for 3 years. Bessey was found not guilty of manslaughter. He was the driver of the car that on March 8 hit and fatally injured Peter Preston, 6, of Metacommet rd., Waban, as the child was walking on Beacon st.

Organize to Help Improve Motion Pictures Here

A movement is being organized in this city to raise the standard of motion pictures. The first meeting of the group which is interested in this endeavor was held on Monday morning, April 9th, at the Paramount Theatre, Newton. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of Oakwood rd., Newtonville, and Mrs. Guy M. Winslow of Auburndale served as secretary. Others present included Rev. Raymond Lang, Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, John Lund, Supt. of Schools; Mrs. J. Mace Andrews, Mrs. Samuel N. Braman, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Miss Estelle G. Marsh, Mrs. Ellis Spauld, Jr., Mrs. J. Earle Parker, Mrs. Amos R. Wells, Mrs. P. E. Woodward and Mrs. Thomas E. Young. John Snyder, manager of the Paramount Theatre, was also present. Mayor Weeks had been invited to serve as honorary president of a Study Council it was later voted to form.

Mrs. Flagg stated that the purpose of the meeting was to start a community group to attempt to improve the standards of motion pictures displayed in Newton and vicinity. She commented that although the task may seem hopeless, something may be accomplished by working with other organizations in various cities. She asked for suggestions from those most interested to serve as members of the group. Rev. Mr. Lang said that most Newton people desire better movies and best results can be gained by working directly with the homes.

"WHERE'S ELMER?" IS TITLE OF LEGION'S MINSTREL REVUE

To Be Given in High School Auditorium Next Week

The committee in charge of the Newton Post, No. 48, American Legion's Ninth Annual Welfare Concert have announced that everything has been arranged to stage this year's entertainment in the Newton High School Auditorium on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 26 and 27. Charles E. Walker, general chairman of the committee, has been assisted by many members of the Post to make this year's concert the most successful one ever conducted by the organization. For the past several weeks a cast of over one hundred have been rehearsing under the direction of Leon H. Mayer, and next week the friends of the Legion will witness the 1934 minstrel review and musical comedy entitled "Where's Elmer?" This comedy was written by Mr. Mayer, and Doris Schroeder has assisted him in arranging several dancing numbers. The entire membership of the local Post is interested in "Where's Elmer?" due to the fact that Director Mayer refuses to divulge the name of the person who will take the part of Elmer, and outside of Director Mayer and Elmer himself no one will know who this elusive gentleman is until the night of the opening of the show.

The Newton Post, No. 48, American Legion Orchestra, under the direction of Ovid F. Avantaggio will provide the music on both nights, and Past Commander Francis J. Barry will be the interlocutor. The members of the end circle will be Henry F. Hurley, Ralph Heald, Robert Powers, Albert K. Reed, Edward Doucette, Daniel Wilkerson, Edwin Beal, Russell Francis, Esther Faherty, Sylvia Wilkerson, Charlotte Heald, Nona Kearney, Claire Beecher and Mary Moore. Soloists and specialists will be Ethel Scott, Leon Ober, Robert Hudson, Alfred Bain, Jr., "Mickey" Epton, Eileen Epton, Francis Kiley, Arthur M. Rogers, Claire Silva, Eleanor Roche, Arthur Stickney and John Geraci.

Others taking prominent parts in the review are Fred Roy, Albert Lawton, Roger Hunt, Charles Mullen, Warren Drury, Ralph Donahue, Wilfred Doucette, Carlton Vose, James Pettrillo, Gerard Halleran, Joseph McHugh, Jack Stefano, Don Fournier, William Miller, Nelson Boudrot, William Pillon, Paul McDonald, Mildred Silva, Bertille Silva, Anna Myers, Kathryn Myers, Marion Churchill, Katherine Lane, Grace Hapenny, Mindell Hoffman, Marcelin McHugh, Anna E. Madaglia, Theresa Madaglia, Christine Rosse, Eva Challoner, Anna Ward, Mary Flynn, Louise McDonald, Dorothy Wilkerson, Ruth Mulligan, Fern Holland, Virginia Cupit, Elizabeth Hart, Catherine Buckley, Irma Bryson, Florence Devlin, Mary Kerr, Peggy Foran, Audrey Sullivan, Kathleen McEleneay, Agnes Reynolds, Elizabeth Hennessey, Margaret House, Mary Delehanty, Kay Doucette, Marie Doucette, Rita McMahon, Julia Dempsey, Helen Lyons, Lena Bontempo, Betty Ryan, Eunice Vose, Mae McCarthy, Mary L. Grinly, Elise Devlin, Mary Barberio, Josephine Barberio, Sally Keaveny, Edna Deming, Audrey Deming, Marion Deming, Barbara Beecher, Mary B. Barry, Frances Edmunds and Catherine Quinlan. The Newton Post color guard will participate in the final patriotic tableau.

Protest Against Zone Change Near Hammond Pond

The Newton Centre Improvement Association has entered a protest against the petition of Patrick O'Loughlin and others asking that nine acres of land at Chestnut Hill, near Hammond Pond on Boylston street, be changed from residence to business zone. Inasmuch as the Board of Aldermen recently changed a small parcel of land in this area from business to residence zone, Mr. O'Loughlin and his co-petitioners seem optimistic.

Aldermen Choose Mansfield to Fill Ward 1 Vacancy

Board Turns Down Petitions For Zone Changes at Highlands

At the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Arthur J. Mansfield of 72 Cabot street was elected by the Board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Albert D. Howlett, Alderman-at-Large from Ward 1. Mr. Mansfield was elected to the office he now fills at the election in 1929, but after serving several months in the 1930 Board he resigned when he moved to Melrose. He returned to Newton last year. His name was placed in nomination by Alderman Gallagher of Ward 1, and seconded by Alderman Sproat of the same Ward.

The first matter on the docket was a hearing on the petition of the Colonial Oil Company for a permit to erect a building at 2246 Commonwealth avenue. A detailed account of this is printed elsewhere in the GRAPHIC. The hearing on the petition of Walter E. Jewell for a permit to erect a gasoline filling station at 1007 Boylston street, Newton Highlands, was postponed to the next meeting because proper notices had not been sent to abutters.

James T. Gillespie and other residents of Solon street, Newton Highlands urged that the city lay out and improve this street as soon as possible. It is a semi-circular highway, with a low spot at the turn where water gathers and it is feared that mosquitos will breed there. Alderman McKay said that he understands some of the residents on this street want its name changed and he advised them to do this before the street is accepted.

The petitions of the heirs of Mary Belger, of Jane Belger and other property owners on Cook street, Newton Highlands to have this area changed from general residence to business zone were refused on recommendation of the Claims and Rules Committee. Alderman Grebenstein, chairman of the committee stated that the Newton Planning Board had recommended that the owners of the properties involved cede 15 feet to the city to permit the widening of Cook street before the area be changed to business zone. The owners refused to co-operate in this respect, therefore the committee decided against the change. Alderman Gordon appeared quite indignant at the action of the committee. Gordon contended that inasmuch as Cook street, running parallel to the turnpike, is only a one-way street, there is no need of the setback recommended by the planning Board. He said, "For God's sake how much land do you want?" Alderman Holden answered that although Cook street is one-way, it is narrow, is used by the fire apparatus which is stationed on this street to reach Eliot street, and should be widened at this corner.

The Aldermen voted to renew a long list of licenses and permits to expressmen, common victuallers, pool rooms and other business ventures which require yearly renewals of licenses. Several common victualler licenses were held up until the Licenses Committee held a recess meeting, and then these were also renewed. The only negative vote cast on these was that of Alderman Temperley on the renewal of the amusement park license at Norumbega Park. The Ward 5 Alderman is opposed to the dance hall there. The application of the Noyes Dining Company for a dining car at 306 Washington street, Newton was withdrawn at the request of the petitioner.

The petition of Patrick O'Loughlin and others to change nine acres of land near Hammond Pond from residence to business zone was refused. Alderman Grebenstein explained that the Metropolitan District Commission is developing a park area adjoining this property.

Appropriations made by the Board included the following—Drain at Win-

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

NEWTON HIGH NINE OPENS SEASON NEXT WEEK; PROSPECT GOOD

That Newton High will be represented by a strong baseball team on the diamond this spring is indicated by the practice sessions and games being held under the direction of Coach Jeff Jones. The orange and black outfit will open its season next week Wednesday afternoon entertaining the Boston High School of Commerce nine at Newtonville. Although many of the schoolboy nines around Greater Boston opened their respective seasons within the past ten days the delayed start should not handicap the Newton squad. With a group of several veterans on hand Coach Jones has worked diligently to fill up the holes left vacant by graduation. The biggest loss came in the pitching staff and when the battery candidates first reported some six weeks ago the Newton mentor gave every prospective twirler careful attention.

Johnny Waters' return to baseball this year after an absence caused by a foot injury the previous season is one of the keys which Coach Jones will rely upon to unlock the pathway to success. Two years ago Waters was the regular second baseman. A natural athlete he tried his hand at pitching and along with Charlie Mascia, a southpaw, looked to be the two best bets. During the past two weeks, however, several other twirlers have developed rapidly and at the present time Coach Jones does not expect to call upon Waters or Mascia for mound duty unless in an emergency.

Joe Green and Bernie Ryan are the two leading pitchers on the twirling staff with Leo Bergen, Bosworth, Alfred Dickinson, and Tom Hennessey other lads who are likely to see considerable service. If the team can get good pitching from this group the outfit should go along smoothly.

Jimmy Byrnes, first baseman of last year as a sophomore, is out of action for a time with an infected leg. Coach Jones hopes he will be available for duty in another two weeks. Meanwhile Waters has been moved in from a regular outfield position in left to cover the initial sack. Ryan or Green, unless pitching, will take over the left garden berth. At second base the starter against Commerce High is as yet uncertain, with Joe Paintedosi and Bill Spilman staking a neck and neck battle. Captain Charlie Flagg will hold down the shortfield berth and will uphold the traditions of that position made famous by Frankie Spain and other luminaries of recent years. Billy McDermott, another veteran has clinched the berth at the hot corner of the infield.

Pete Morrison will be the regular receiver and has shown much improvement over his last year's form. He should be one of the outstanding performers for the squad this season.

Teddy Johnson, still another of the lettermen on hand, will roam the centrefield area with Charlie Mascia in right field. Ryan or Green will cover Waters' regular position in left field until Byrnes' return to the game, which will permit Waters to go back to the outfield.

All this week the squad has been having daily morning practice thru the opportunity provided by spring vacation from school and previously had been out every afternoon the weather permitted the previous week or two. Last week the squad went over to one of the Soldiers Field diamonds to play a practice game with the Harvard Jayvees. Newton clinched the game 7 to 2 when Johnny Waters poled a home run over the fence. It was the first time the feat had been accomplished. On Monday of this week the locals won a practice game from Roxbury Latin School and today is playing Milton Academy on the latter's field. When the regular season opens Coach Jones will rely mainly upon the steady hitting of Charlie Mascia, the long hitting of Waters, the greatly improved catching of Pete Morrison and the continued development of Ryan and Bergen on the mound. Paintedosi or Spilman will hold down the lead-off position in the batting order and will be followed by McDermott. Waters and Mascia and Flagg will provide the batting order with a strong wrecking crew. Morrison, Ryan or Green, Johnson and the pitcher will complete the batting order.

Buick's 1934 reception strikingly resembles the insistent demand of an audience for an encore from a favorite star. Led by an army of Buick owners, all the public is far surpassing previous enthusiasm for Buick. Everywhere, the talk about Buick is turning into a flood of buying action.

When you come to take your first ride in a Buick, you will find—in whichever type and size you prefer to buy—stunning new beauty and luxury. There is also new engineering progress... a broader incorporation of fine performance, thorough-going dependability and safety... greater ease and convenience. These desirable advantages are expressed in the new Knee-Action gliding ride as only Buick gives it, in automatic starting and other new features, in finer smoothness and quiet, with greater power.

Buick builds this year's cars in the size you want to buy—119-, 128-, and 136-inch wheelbase. All have the same high excellence, the same flashing performance, the same famous dependability, the same advanced features.

CRUMMETT—COUNTY

At a candlelight ceremony, solemnized in St. John's Episcopal Church, Newtonville, Miss Emily County, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Francis Ruane of 67 Walnut street, that town, became the bride of Geryon deSteiguer Crummett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stone Crummett, of 57 Walnut street, Newtonville, April 13. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Raymond Lang, rector of the church.

By coincidence there were thirteen members in the bridal party, offsetting the supernatural influence of Friday the 13th. They were: Miss Bertha Polly of Waltham, who was maid of honor; Misses Marie Folino of Boston, Mona Nugent of Waltham, Jean Brown of Jamaica Plain and Eleanor MacKell of North Attleboro, bridesmaids; Norman Butler Stoney, best man; George Duthie-Strachan, George Nea, Alfred Hickin and Howard MacKell, ushers, and the bride's father, who gave her in marriage, William G. Hambleton, organist of the church provided a half hour's musical program prior to the service for which he played the Lohengrin and Mendelssohn marches. His program included Handel's "Largo," Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsus" and "I Love You Truly."

The lighted candles were combined with masses of spring flowers, ferns and palms in a setting of unusual splendor. Easter and calla lilies formed a background flanked with Cibodium ferns and in front of which stood tall urns of cut spring flowers with potted azaleas, jonquils and tulips in the foreground. Attached to each pew was a single calla, held in place by white satin ribbons. Southern smilax was used in the side windows of the church and before the window at the rear stood an urn of flowers and a lighted candelabra.

Pastel colorings, suggested by the floral setting, were carried out in the costumes for the bride and her attendants. The bride wore a gown of blue pink lace, she wore a veil of tulle in matching tone. Her arm bouquet was of Briarcliff roses, delphinium and gypsophylla. The maid of honor wore orchid point d'esprit and carried yellow anemones and blue iris. Gerbera, Roman anemones, delphinium and gypsophylla were combined in the bridesmaids' bouquets, their costumes being in harmonizing shades.

In the parish house, where the reception was held, illumination was by candlelight only. The receiving line, augmented by the parents of the bride and bridegroom, stood before masses of Cibodium ferns, palms and Southern smilax. The Candlelight Trio, under the direction of Miss Marguerite Stiles, provided the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Crummett have been entertained extensively during the past few weeks, the series of events concluding with the dinners for the bridal party, Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ruane were hosts to the bride's attendants while the bridegroom's attendants were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Crummett.

Feature Program at Paramount Theatre

One of the biggest programs of the year is offered at the Paramount Theatre, Newton, starting Sunday, April 22nd, for four days. Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert will be seen in "It Happened One Night," one of the outstanding dramas of the silver screen this season. Gable's role is that of a hard-boiled newspaper man who stumbles across a runaway heiress trying to get back to her lover in New York. She is helpless in the face of difficulties along the road and Gable places her under his rough but protecting wing.

He doesn't like her and tells her so. He calls her "Brat" and makes her like it. He is immune to her charms independent of her wiles, cold to her advances, and treats her rough, verbally and physically. It's the Gable picture fans want to see. Walter Connolly, Roscoe Karns and Jameson Thomas have the principal supporting roles.

The new same program Anna Sten, the new Russian screen star, will be seen in "Nana"—a picture much different than any ever seen on the American screen.

For the last half of the week Robert Montgomery in "Mystery of Mr. X" and Frances Dee and Gene Raymond in "Coming Out Party" is the program. The usual vaudeville will be presented Saturday evening.

Veteran Newton Policeman Retires

William H. Dolan of 342 Lexington street, Auburndale, for 35 years a member of the Newton police department was retired last Friday on a pension, having reached the age of 65 years. Mr. Dolan is a life-long resident of this city. For the past several years he was day patrolman at Chestnut Hill. He had an excellent record during all the years he was a member of the department.

Highland Glee Club Sponsors Lecture

On Friday evening, April 27th, the Highland Glee Club is sponsoring a presentation of moving pictures and colored photographs presented by Dr. Charles T. Tozier of Winchester.

This is one of the most interesting collections of pictures in this country. These pictures were taken and collected over a period of years during his travels in this country, Central America, Jamaica, the Tropics, the Canadian Rockies, and the West Coast. They depict the beautiful and marvelous things found in the great outdoors, and give a comprehensive idea of all phases of natural history, from the Arctic to the Equator. The Grand Canyons of our own West, the glories of the Canadian Rockies, the wonders of the animal and bird kingdoms, and the marvels of sea life will be featured.

Garden lovers will be thrilled by the beauty of the Butchart Gardens in Victoria, probably the finest garden on this continent, and other outstanding gardens of this country. Every lover of nature will feel that the evening's entertainment is one to be long remembered.

The educational value of these pictures, for adults as well as for children, is exceptional. Wherever they are shown they create great interest and amazement because of their beauty and accuracy. All the pictures are in natural color and projected with a powerful equipment onto a glass-headed screen. They are outstanding because of their scientific accuracy in reproducing the original subject. Some of the most eminent authorities have declared them as the most remarkable collection of natural color photography in existence.

Dr. Tozier was able to photograph these pictures through the permission and assistance of the Governments of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central America and the West Indies, combined with the United Fruit Company, the Union Pacific and the Canadian Pacific Railways.

Lines of Least Resistance

AMERICA'S first fully streamlined train, the Union Pacific M-10,000 is expected to set new speed records, because its design follows the lines of least resistance.

Such a policy may be all right for trains, automobiles and such vehicles. But when it comes to getting ahead financially, resistance to the desire to spend every penny is what counts.

He said, "We don't want our children to see such pictures as they have been seeing." John Lund said that the problem is a very difficult one and must be worked out on a long range basis. He said that much study is necessary and suggested that those interested form a study group. He stated that a start might be made by suggesting certain improvements in programs. He predicted that ultimately there will be moving picture theatres catering to people who demand better pictures, and other theatres catering to those who want cheap pictures. He commented that even though the theatre in Newton specialized in better pictures, there are a dozen other theatres in nearby communities that might show other types of pictures.

Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., told of the unsuccessful attempt made by a group of persons in Newton a few years ago to provide better pictures for children, and she was sceptical as to the success of any similar movement. She said that bad motion pictures can undo all the other good work done to help children and even good parents are not aware of the character of the pictures seen by their children. She stated that the manager of the Newton theatre would face financial failure if he attempted, single-handed, to display only pictures of a high class.

Mrs. J. Mace Andrews told of the evil caused by the insistence of New England audiences in demanding "double-bill" programs. This causes a bad picture to be shown on the same program with a good picture. Mr. Snyder, manager of the theatre, said that New England people demand a 3-hour program with two feature pictures, thus preventing the display of beautiful travelogue pictures and other educational films. Rev. Mr. Merrill said that Newton should co-operate with any national campaign to break up block booking of pictures, which is one of the chief reasons for the showing of bad pictures. He advocated that lists of good pictures be published in the papers and displayed in the schools. Mrs. J. Earle Parker said the Federation of Women's Clubs would assist in this activity.

On motion of Mr. Lund it was voted to organize into a Study Council on Moving Pictures. It was decided to hold another meeting at the Paramount Theatre on April 30 at 11 a. m. Among the objects which the group will work for are: to build up family programs which will be shown on certain nights; to give special publicity to exceptionally good photographs; to stop salacious advertising and titles; to suggest that parents have their children see only pictures which are suitable.

Directors of Stearns School Centre Met on Monday

The April meeting of the Board of Directors of the Stearns School Center was held on Monday, April 16th, at the home of the vice-president, Miss Lucy Cobb, 244 Franklin st., Newton. A great deal of interest is being taken in the three act play, to be given at the Hunnewell Club, Newton, by the Senior Girls' group on May 22nd. Cooking demonstrations were shown to the various household art groups by the Rumford Baking Powder Company at the Center and the participants were given recipes for this product. Miss Helen Sandstrom, the Director, reported that some of the recreational groups were concluding their programs, due to the fact that their leaders for the year have been volunteers from schools and colleges in and around the Newtons, and these leaders are now relinquishing their interests on account of school work.

Mr. George Kellar, Assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, Mr. John Lund, gave a very informative talk about the methods used by the School Department to protect the public school child, emphasizing the co-operation of the department to obtain a definite set-up for its purpose. He explained the accurate procedure in investments for supplies, food, maintenance and sanitation, showing that adequate heating, clean schoolroom walls and floors, and wholesome food products were a very important step toward the education of Newton's school children. Great assistance is rendered by the Commissioner of Public Buildings, the Police Department and the Fire Department, so that exits, free aisles, faultless fire extinguishers and alarms are effective 100 per cent when needed. In his opinion, if the School Department safeguards the school child 22 hours every week, private organizations can greatly relieve problems of truancy and crime, if they offer opportunities for recreation and hobbies for leisure hours. He has observed the operations of school centers and earnestly hopes that their programs will expand so that the neighborhood conditions can improve under their guidance and efforts.

Funeral services were held in the Newtonville Methodist Episcopal Church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock with the Rev. Laurence W. C. Emig, the pastor, officiating. A later service was held in Norwalk, Ohio, where burial was in the family lot in Woodlawn Cemetery. Mrs. Olcott and Miss Martha Olcott went on to Norwalk for this service.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Fifty Years of Useful Service Is Celebrated

When an organization rounds out half a century of service in a community it rightly commands the interest and respectful tributes of that community. With the close of this Club season, Newtonville celebrates this span of usefulness in a fitting recognition of the Club's activities, and all Newton citizens give attention in a pause to consider the growth and accomplishments of fifty active years.

The inspiration which gave to what may well be a grateful community the Newtonville Woman's Club, now four hundred and fifty in membership, was Mrs. John W. Dickinson's, the wife of the secretary of the Board of Education for the State of Massachusetts, who formulated plans for a Woman's Guild in Newtonville, their first fortnightly meeting being held on April 4th, 1884, in Hull House, one of the homes of the famous General in the Revolution, located at the corner of Walnut and Austin streets, at that time the home of Mrs. John L. Roberts.

The Guild met for many years at the homes of members; its avowed object being to unite the women of Newtonville in charitable, social, and intellectual activities. Its oldest philanthropy was the Newton Hospital. Before the Guild was one hundred months old, on June 2nd, 1884, to be exact, its records show that it appropriated $140 to the original Cottage Hospital, to furnish the dining-room, and this was before ground had been broken for this project. Again, in 1888, records show a contribution of $220 and later a free bed at $300 a year, for nine years; as well as assistance given in the establishment of the School for Nurses. Today the Newtonville Woman's Club carries forward this keen interest in the Hospital by annual contributions of money, and by giving, through a committee, a day each month to sew or to work on dressings, and by the collection each fall of old linens and the generous gift of glasses of jellies and preserves, made by Club members, always to the number of four to five hundred glasses.

In 1906 the Club contributed $750 toward the purchase of the famous Claflin estate, once the home of a Governor of Massachusetts, for which funds were being raised, as a gift to the city, to be developed and used for High Schools.

Among its other fine works which bless individuals and community, the Club since 1925 has given annually a Scholarship to some young woman of Newtonville so that she may continue her education, and the Club maintains a Scholarship Guarantee Fund, although the Annual Bazaar always supplies the needed $200. The Club gives a Christmas Party each year to sixty underprivileged children, with entertainment, refreshments, and toys, which delight these deprived youngsters. The Club also assists in the sale of Health Christmas Seals in the district, the drive in 1933 amounting to over $820.

The Guild changed its official name to Newtonville Woman's Club in 1919. In October 1920 records show that money that had been accumulating toward the day when the Club should own its own home was deposited as a Housing Account, and in the spring of 1932, when Mrs. Herbert F. Blair was its president, the Club had the proud moment of voting to realize its dream and use this accumulated fund in the purchase of the property of the Universalist Society on Washington park, this being a stone church, with considerable land extending in the rear to Madison avenue. Here in these new quarters that house the Club admirably, there is a large auditorium, a social hall with kitchenette, directors' room, president's office; a downstairs kitchen, and the former banquet hall which has been renovated and redecorated, to be a fine gallery, where various exhibits have given pleasure already, and others may be staged for the enjoyment and information of the public.

The acquisition of an estate always means new responsibilities, new efforts to gain the needed income. The Club House spurs to new ideas, new offerings; and social life gains, as well as the financial and informative. Art, Drama, Music, Current Events, Literature, Lectures, Bridge Parties, Dances, vie with one another to entertain and improve. To Miss Estelle Marsh, chairman of Dramatics for some time before the Club House was purchased, must be given the recognition that her efficient work in plays open to the public brought much money to the Housing fund. Others have given of their services and talents. Volunteer Service, Education, and other committees serve the community needs and civic improvement. As an example of community co-operation, observe last December, when beautiful Christmas tableaux were shown in the Tower doorway on Christmas eve, while carols were sung by singers of the city, at the Community Christmas Tree in the Park.

Needless to say this Club is a charter member of the General, State, and Newton (city) Federations, instant to recognize the progress of unified effort in club work. It incorporated at the time it purchased its Club House in 1932. Its present president is Mrs. Edwin P. Crawl.

The record of this Club would not be complete if it were not mentioned that in February 1930 the Club benefited by the will of Miss Susy Allen Dickinson, daughter of the founder of the Guild, and herself a charter member of the Club. One may realize that in this generous remembrance the donor took pride and tender in-

WOMEN'S CLUBS

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Annual Meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be held on Friday, April 27th, at the Brae Burn Country Club. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. The guests of honor will be Mrs. George H. Jackson, founder and first president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Thomas Walker, incoming president of the State Federation; and Mrs. Seldon E. James, Twelfth District director.

Miss Rita Shaw, student at Leland Powers School, will be the guest artist. Decorations at the luncheon tables will be spring flowers. Mrs. George H. Jackson is chairman, and her committee is composed of the following Club members: Mrs. June Chipman, Mrs. Henry L. Goodman, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath, Mrs. James W. Messenger, Mrs. David O. Warner, and Mrs. Harry S. Wells. Tickets for the luncheon may be obtained from any of the above mentioned committee.

The last meeting of the year for the Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be held on Saturday, April 28th (note change in usual day), at the home of Mrs. Malcolm A. Warren, 28 Oakland avenue, Auburndale. Mrs. Louie A. Bacon will read a paper on "Bavaria," and Mrs. Alvah L. Jordan's paper will be on "International Relations."

General Federation

ART LECTURE. "The First American Sculptors" is to be the topic presented tomorrow evening, the 21st, in the series of lectures on Art in America given on Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock, over Station WBZ. Initiated by the General Federation of Women's Clubs Art department, Art Institutes and Museums throughout the country are assisting by speakers, and the National Broadcasting Company is giving the facilities of its system.

State Federation

RADIO. Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, Massachusetts director in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak tomorrow morning, the 21st, on the State broadcast during the half hour 11:15 to 11:45 over Station WBZ. Mrs. David A. Wescott, fourth vice-president of the State Federation, and Mrs. Mabel F. Barstow, State official song leader, also will speak; the latter to the topic "Community and Choral Singing." The Lawrence Piano Duo will give the music of the interludes.

ANNUAL MEETING. Clubwomen should make their reservations early for accommodations at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, for the Annual Meeting of the State Federation, which will be held May 14th, 15th, and 16th. It is stated that Mr. Kennedy, the manager, is offering even more attractive rates than usual. This is the year for electing new officers, for saying regretful farewells to beloved leaders and welcoming new ones. The attendant events and festivities make it an interesting, colorful, and appealing year for those who go to the meeting. Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, president for the past two years, retires. She will become Massachusetts director of the General Federation, succeeding Mrs. Schrader, the custom of succession which carries a retiring State president on to national duties and honors. Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, who has been the first vice-president of the State, will succeed to the presidency.

Presidents who want tickets for the "Presidents' Luncheon" which takes place on Monday, May 14th, should reserve their place at once with Mrs. John A. Jennings, 1896 Beacon street, Brookline, tickets being one dollar. A waiting list for any vacancies after May 11th, will be made for those presidents who are not in office on May 14th, and who would like to attend.

The Junior Dinner comes on Monday, May 14th, at 6 o'clock. Since the number of tickets for this is limited, they should be reserved as early as possible with Mrs. Charles C. Willson, 127 Rowe terrace, Auburndale. These tickets also are one dollar.

The Directors and Junior Presidents will parade Monday evening, and the local Senior Presidents will parade Tuesday evening, in District groups with their Directors. Tuesday evening is Governor's Night, the gala night of festivities.

Details of the sessions and speakers will be announced later. Plans for well-informed speakers and for worthwhile presentation of club activities are being carefully considered, states Mrs. Bennett.

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The members of the West Newton Women's Educational Club entertained the West Newton Community Service Club on Friday, April 13th, at their regular meeting held at the Second Church. Mrs. Henry B. Patrick, president of the Community Service Club, and Mrs. Seldon E. James, Twelfth District director, were the guests of honor. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president, opened the meeting with cordial greetings to the guests. She also announced that the Executive Board has authorized the purchase of a Violet-Ray lamp to be donated to the Reformatory for Women at Framingham, for the benefit of the sick and ailing babies at that institution. Then four very fine reports were read: Mrs. Arthur D. Batson reported on the Club Institute program; Mrs. Star A. Burdick gave two reports on Art Conferences at the Gardner Museum and at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts; and Mrs. Alfred E. Thayer reported on the American Home and Youth Conference held at the Statler Hotel in March.

Mrs. G. Howard Frost, Program chairman, then took charge of the afternoon's program, and introduced the speaker, Mr. Alton Hall Blackington, who is a professional camera man and a widely-known newspaper man. The audience enjoyed every moment of Mr. Blackington's talk, and also his slides on "Historical New England." His material was very well chosen, colored slides of beautiful New England's shores and mountains, interspersed with pictures of old New England characters, and touching and amusing scenes.

At the conclusion of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed in the tea-room. The hostesses were Mrs. Star A. Burdick, Mrs. Frederick A. Cole, Mrs. Patrick Duncan, and Mrs. Gilbert R. Jones.

West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club

The Annual Meeting of the West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club was held on April 10th at the Wellesley Inn, in Wellesley, under the chairmanship of Miss Dorothy Brackett. It was one of the most enjoyable annual meetings that the Club has ever had. A delicious dinner was served, and the tables were decorated with yellow roses. The guest of honor was the Senior Club's president, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, who later addressed the Club members with a few warmly friendly words.

Following the dinner splendid reports were given of the year's work and achievements. Beautiful bouquets were presented to the retiring president, Miss Elizabeth Hoss, and also to the retiring adviser, Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg. The retiring president expressed most grateful appreciation to the members for their splendid co-operation during the year. Mrs. Ratzburg has spent four years, two as assistant and two as adviser, with the Club, and her kindness with all of the Juniors has won a warm place in their hearts, and they regret to give her up.

The following officers were elected: President, Priscilla Hay; recording secretary, Jane Hayden; very willing secretary, Dorothy Brackett; and treasurer, Harriette Bengason.

The new president, Miss Hay, spoke to the Club briefly, telling of her hopes for the Club in the coming year, following which she declared the meeting adjourned.

Judge Rules in Favor of Sheriff on Drunken Driving

Judge Charles Brown of East Boston, sitting in the Newton court on Tuesday found Walter Moynihan of Worcester, a deputy sheriff, guilty of drunkenness and fined him $5. Moynihan appealed. The police also charged Moynihan with drunken driving, but Judge Brown refused to grant a complaint on this charge, ruling the evidence not sufficient. Patrolmen Mague and Jenkins testified that at 2 a. m. on April 3 a car went by them at high speed. They chased it from Norumbega Park three-quarters of a mile into Weston. When they overtook the car, Moynihan and a woman companion were standing alongside it.

Young And Old —Stone Institute Plans Reception

In an issue of the GRAPHIC a few weeks ago, citizens of Newton read with interest and pride a quotation from the address of Mr. Paul E. Ellicker, principal of the Newton High School, recently delivered at the convention of the National Educational Association at Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Ellicker explained the methods employed in the Newton Schools for the personal welfare of our children. Parents reading his words must feel a sense of security in the attention their children are receiving. As we think of so many homes where the child is the center of interest, and rightly so, a question comes to mind. How many homes in Newton have an aged person as a member of the family circle? How many middle aged or possibly young married people have the well being and happiness of an aged relative in their keeping and are doing all in their power to make the last years of this dear one as comfortable as possible? Lucky, indeed, is the elderly person who finds a place in such a home.

Not every person is so fortunate. The years have gone, and with them relatives, friends and often money. There is no one left to care. To many communities there is only one solution. Public Charity. This need not be the case in Newton. As the city gives wise thought to her children, so the citizens have remembered the aged. The Stone Institute and Newton Home for Aged People is an institution for the care of elderly Newton people. It is a home not merely in name, but in fact. Every attention is given to its upkeep and every care to its residents.

On the afternoon of May 19th, a reception will be held at the Home, 277 Elliot st., Newton Upper Falls. The public is cordially invited and it is hoped that many will take this opportunity to have a cup of tea with the ladies and to become better acquainted with one of Newton's most worthy interests.

Injured Youth Charged With School Burglary

Samuel Magazzu, 18, of 184 California st., Nonantum, was arraigned in the Newton court last Saturday charged with breaking and entering the Day Junior high school at Walnut st., Newtonville. He disclaimed any knowledge of the crime with which he was charged and a plea of not guilty was entered in his behalf. His case was continued until April 20th, and he was held in $5000 bail. Judge Fabyan, who presided, asked Serg. King of the Newton police why he asked for such high bail. King replied that he was afraid that Magazzu might go to Italy if released on small bail.

About 10:45 last Thursday night Magazzu was brought by a companion to the home of Earl Gifford, 6 Fair Oaks ave., Newtonville, and the latter asked Mrs. Gifford to call a doctor for Magazzu who was weak from loss of blood, caused by a severed artery in his left wrist. Mrs. Gifford telephoned the police and the ambulance was sent to the house. In the meantime Magazzu's companion disappeared. The injured youth was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Friday morning it was discovered that a burglary had been committed at the Day school. Entrance to the building was effected by breaking a window on the second floor. The safe in the principal's office had its combination knocked off with a sledge hammer. A pane of glass in a door leading to the tool room at the school had been broken and from this door a trail of blood was followed by the police to the house on Fair Oaks ave. where Magazzu had been taken to get aid. When the police obtained this evidence, they placed Magazzu under arrest at the hospital. The police believed that he cut his wrist when he supposedly went to the tool room to obtain more tools in the attack on the safe. There have been several burglaries at the Day school the past few years.

Little Interest By Voters In Election Of Delegates To Party Conventions

Democratic Contest in Ward 4 Is Feature of Day In Which
But Seven Per Cent of Vote Is Cast

The first party primary election was held in Newton on Tuesday, and as in the State in general, the interest shown on this election did not warrant the expense of holding it. Less than 7½% of the registered voters in this city went to the polls. Of the total registration of 32,735, only 2,423 voted.

The principal contest was between the Democrats in Ward 4, where one group led by A. Leslie Moriarty, License Commissioner and President of the City Employees Union, and another group headed by Alderman Dennis Cronin tested their strength. Moriarty was defeated for delegate to the Democratic State Convention by the Francis Hart, who was backed by the Cronin group; the vote was 117 to 97. The faction headed by Hart also won over that headed by Moriarty in the contest for Democratic Ward Committee in Ward 4. Other Democratic contests were in Ward 3 where Algonon McCarthy defeated Alfred Guzzi for delegate to the State Convention by a vote of 203 to 63; in Ward 6, where Philip Kneeland defeated Marguerite Reardon and George Cahill, in the contest for delegate; and in Ward 7, where Paul G. Kirk defeated Peter Borre for delegate.

The Republican contests were in Ward 5 where four candidates ran for three positions as delegates to the Republican State Convention. Those elected were Thomas W. White, H. J. Pettengill, Jr., and T. F. Mullen. Thomas Covey was defeated. In Ward 6 for delegates to the Republican State Convention, Mrs. Elizabeth Saltonstall and Sydney Weeks were elected; Alfred Ginsberg and Robert Waldman were defeated.

Unopposed delegates to the Republican and Democratic State conventions elected from other wards of the city were:

Ward 1—Thomas M. Gallagher (Rep.), Eleanor G. Mulcahy (Dem.).

Ward 2—Margaret McGill (Rep.), Carl F. Schipper (Rep.), John P. Tierney (Dem.).

Ward 3—Hon. Sinclair Weeks (Rep.), Hon. Charles Hatfield (Rep.).

Ward 4—Charles B. Floyd (Rep.).

Ward 5—Joseph W. Bartlett (Dem.).

Ward 7—George E. Rawson (Rep.).

Business Men Hold Meeting at Centre To Formulate Code

A gathering of Newton businessmen was held on Monday night at Bray Hall, Newton Centre, to organize a Local Retail Code Authority for this city in conjunction with the N. R. A. The meeting was arranged by Rupert C. Thompson, Secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce. He explained that the purpose of the meeting was to effectuate self-government in the retail trade of Newton and to secure the fullest and fairest administration of the Retail Codes. As the city has a number of trading areas, those elected to the Authority were chosen from all sections of the city and from the different divisions of trade.

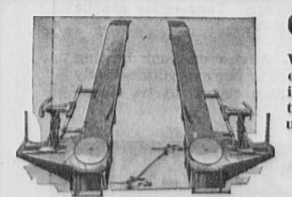

In accordance with the N. R. A. legislation, application has been made to Washington for sanction of the Authority in Newton and as soon as this is received another meeting will be called of the different divisions in Retail Trade so that all may become familiar with the provisions of their codes. The organization will work for the benefit of Newton merchants and will strive to make retail establishments in this city as good, and better than those in surrounding places. It was emphasized that residents of the Newtons spend too much of their money outside this city. Much of this money is just force of habit, although many things that enter into the daily life of the community cannot be purchased here. It is realized, so the meeting was told, that most persons want to purchase the most for their money, quality considered. Newton merchants will be urged to take concerted action to convince the people of this city that the business men of Newton have merchandise and prices that compare favorably with those of other cities.

The following persons were chosen to represent the several divisions of the Retail Trade: Richard I. Dwyer, James W. Daniels, Paul B. Gatten, Frederick A. Hawkins, George P. Hatch, Perley A. Hillard, Wilfred Chagnon, Frederick D. Bond, Theo O. Bjornson, George E. Glynn, Augustus P. Calder, James P. Kerrigan, Frank O. Avantiaggio, Archie W. Osgood, Harold W. Moore, Ernest J. Moberg, John Temperley, Sydney B. Holden, Albert F. Bonazzoli, Mrs. Eleanor B. Atwood, George L. Stalker, John W. Ryan.

Chairman: Frederick D. Bond; Vice Chairman: For Newton, Frank O. Avantiaggio; For Newtonville, Theo O. Bjornson; For West Newton, George P. Hatch; For Newton Centre, Chestnut Hill, Sydney B. Holden; For Newton Highlands, Waban, Upper Falls, Perley A. Hillard; For Auburndale, Lower Falls, Ernest J. Moberg; Treasurer, James B. Melcher; Secretary, Rupert C. Thompson.

Prominent Newton Philanthropist Dies At Age of 92 Yrs.

Miss Elizabeth Spear of 89 Walnut park, Newton, died on Saturday, April 21. She was born in Boston, 92 years ago, the daughter of Edward Spear and Abigail (Fenno) Spear. Her father was a native of Newton. When she was six months of age her parents moved to Newton and for 90 years she resided in the house in which she died. She was one of four sisters, the Misses Mary, Abie, Caroline and Elizabeth Spear, none of whom married. Miss Elizabeth Spear conducted a private school in this city for nearly a half century. She started teaching pupils in her home and later the school was located at Newton Corner in a house on the site now occupied by the Gas Company office.

During her long life Miss Spear was very active in charitable work. For many years before welfare work in this city was organized, she assisted hundreds of poor families and individuals who needed aid.

She became greatly interested in the Sunday School at North Village in 1863, and from then on, her interest broadened until it included not only the whole of that section now known as Nonantum, but also the entire city. The poor and those in need always found her a friend. Her home was a place where the needy, regardless of race, creed or color, found a welcome and material assistance. Her sympathy extended to every organization which had for its object the helping of the unfortunate. She loved the church, and the things relating to God's Kingdom everywhere.

Her one aim in life seemed to be to make her contribution toward happier people and a better world. The welfare of the poor, the sick, the aged, the shut-ins and youth was always on her heart. Like the village parson in Goldsmith's Deserterd Village "she watched and wept, prayed and felt for all"; and yet, with all her charitable instinct she always felt that to help people help themselves was the finest sort of service in the end.

Her funeral service was held at her home on Monday afternoon, April 23, at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. Bachelder of North Congregational Church officiated. Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

City Pays More Claims For Damage From Blasting

At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen an appropriation was passed to pay several more claims against the city by owners of houses who some months ago presented bills for alleged damages to their properties because of blasting while the high level sewer was excavated last year. The claims paid included—William A. Brownrigg, 86 Arlington street, $400; Arthur E. Roy, 5 Winchester road, $750; Patrick J. Toye, 46 Bennington street, $830; Mary E. O'Brien, 58 Playstead road, $400.

NEWTON ARCHERS HOLD HOLIDAY SHOOT WITH EIGHTY COMPETITORS

The Newton Archers held their first quarterly shoot of the season on the holiday, April 19th, with record number of competitive entries in the various events. Eighty men, women and children, took part in the fine shooting which took place and resulted in several interesting and important surprises. W. Evington Long of Newtonville, the Mass. State Archery Ass'n. Champion, led the entire field with a score of 89-651 for the first American round. This mark is thirty-nine points ahead of the country's most prominent archer, Russell Hoogerhyde, who made a score of 90-612. Mr. Hoogerhyde shot the morning round only. In the afternoon the rest of the field finished the Double American Round with Mr. Long leading 176-1234. J. F. Waterman of Belmont, D. C. Wells of Melrose, A. A. Gray of Waltham and M. S. Pearce of Waltham were the next five to finish, all being over 1000 points. Dr. Horatio Rogers, president of the Newton Archers this year, was the next local man to finish with a score of 167-999.

Philip Drinker of Brookline won the Cummings handicap cup which is one of the most hotly contested trophies in the quarterly shoot. The trophy has changed hands twenty-five times during the past seven years. Mr. Drinker had a score of 170-908 which with his handicap gave him the honors for the Double Round.

In the Columbia Round shoot for women, Mrs. Lyman E. Whitney of Boston, twice E. A. A. champion, a member of the Newton archers and former resident of Newton, led the field with a score of 69-393. She won the Carzu Clark cup, Mrs. Horatio Rogers of Newton Centre, E. A. A. flight shot champion in 1933, with a score of 70-386. Mrs. Parker Felt of Waltham was third and Mrs. D. S. Cummings of Newton Centre placed fourth. Mrs. Cummings was shooting her first competitive round since last June at the Eastern Archery meet. She has won the E. A. A. title 11 times and the N. A. A. title seven times and holds several national records.

In the American round in the afternoon, Mrs. Cummings led with a score of 85-438 and Mrs. Felt placed second. Mrs. Rogers third and Mrs. Pearce of Waltham fourth. Although not finishing first in either round, Mrs. Felt had the high score of the day with 931 in the center st. on Friday afternoon, April 27.

The Mariner Henry Higgins who led the field of eleven juniors with a score of 151-761. Higgins is a member of the Newton Archers as is Charles Kitchen of Newton who took second place with a mark of 109-542. The Nisbet bugle for the best American round practice score went to Burdett S. Kramp of Providence. A special prize of a ground quiver was presented to Mrs. Felt for her success in topping the field of women archers for the day's shooting.

The Newton School Committee on Monday gave a hearing to Henry Mullen of 413 Auburn st., Auburndale, who was discharged on April 14 from his position as a janitor at the high school. Mullen was represented by Att. James P. Akins. Evidence was offered to show that Mullen was suspended last September for a period of 30 days and took no appeal from this action. Starting March 22 he was absent from duty for a week and on March 28 Secretary Kellar of the school department recommended his discharge. Following the hearing on Monday the School Committee sustained this action.

More Breaks At Newton Corner

The real estate office of D. M. Burke, 223 Washington street, Newton, was broken into over the weekend. Entrance was effected by breaking a pane of glass in a rear window. The office was ransacked, but nothing of value was taken. An attempt was also made to enter the Hoffman Beauty Parlor next door to Burke's office. An outside rear door was forced open but an inside door stopped the would-be burglar. Boys are supposed to have been responsible. A number of breaks have been made recently at Newton Corner and two boys were apprehended a couple of weeks ago.

Military Events Added to Program for May 12th

Members of two cavalry troops will appear in special military events at the Newton Cavalry Horse Show on the Walworth Estate on May 12. They will present a Cossack Drill and a Rough Riding Exhibition similar to those that proved so entertaining to the spectators at last year's Show. Several children's classes are arranged for the morning, including the exciting "mazel chair" event.

Entry blanks have been distributed, and entries and inquiries should be addressed to Arthur H. Lovesey, 8 Hillcrest road, East Milton, Mass.

In accordance with the etiquette of the horse world, Allan J. Wilson, one of Newton's most prominent horsemen, will not enter his horses in the Newton Show, of which he is chairman.

Among those who have already taken boxes for Newton's second Cavalry Horse Show, which is to be held on the Walworth Estate on Center st. on May 12, are the following: Mayor and Mrs. Sinclair Weeks, Mr. E. Ray Spear, Mr. Grosvenor Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Pratt, Mrs. G. Horace Williams, Mr. Hugh Nawn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. B. A. Alder of Waban, the ticket committee of about thirty women of the Newtons will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry I. Harriman on Center st. Mrs. Albert P. Everts, Mrs. Sinclair Weeks, and Mrs. Hanson H. Webster have been added recently to this committee.

Members of a sub-committee for the sale of tickets in Newton Centre will have tea with Miss Louise Walworth at 931 Center st. on Friday afternoon, April 27.

Upper Falls Youths Are Arrested For Entering Saco Shop

An Upper Falls young man and his two youthful brothers were arrested Monday night by Patrolman Brosnahan in one of the buildings of the former Saco-Lowell plant at Newton Upper Falls. Monday a watchman at the plant found several hundred old books and catalogs tied in bundles on the first floor of the building. They had been taken from the third floor by someone who apparently hoped to realize a little profit by selling the old catalogs as waste paper. The watchman notified the police and Patrolman Brosnahan was detailed to hide in the building on Monday night near the bundles of old paper. About 8 o'clock an automobile stopped outside the building and three youths entered, to be arrested by the waiting policeman. They were John C. Melnick, 23, of 55 Wetherell st., and his two younger brothers, aged 16 and 14. Melnick was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday on charges of breaking and entering, and larceny. He was bound over to the Grand Jury and released in $1000 bail. The case of the 16 year old brother will be heard in the juvenile court today. The younger boy was released.

Improvement Association To Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Newtonville Improvement Association has been scheduled for 8 p. m., May 15 at the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville. Reports of officers will be heard and election of officers for the coming year will be held.

The Association is very fortunate in securing as a speaker for that evening Mr. Albert Leonard Squier who will give his illustrated presentation on "The March of the Seasons Through the White Mountains." It is over twenty years since Mr. Squier made his first picture of the New Hampshire Highlands and from that time until now the collection has grown. The four seasons are depicted; and the scenes are laid in the four valleys of the Androscoggin, the Connecticut, the Pemigewasset and the Saco. It has been said that the descriptions accompanying the pictures are no less choice and lovely than the scenes they depict.

Eight-Year-Old Girl in Piano Recital From Memory

Music critics and friends of the Avantiaggio family of 37 Elmwood street, Newton, are looking forward to the piano recital Tuesday, May 1, at the Newtonville Women's Club to be given from memory by Anne Marie Avantiaggio, the eight-year-old prodigy who attracted so much favorable comment by her first recital last year. Doors will open at 8 p. m., for only those who have been favored with an invitation.

Changes In Ward Lines As Proposed Give Each of Seven Wards Equal Voting Strength

Plans Advocated As Result of Mayor Weeks' Inaugural Address
—Growth in Some Sections of City Very Rapid

In his inaugural address on January 1st Mayor Weeks referred to the matter of redistricting the city by Wards for the purpose of getting more equitable representation. Because of the rapid growth of the city in recent years and the development of certain sections, particularly in the South side of the city, the population in some Wards became double that of other Wards. As a result, agitation was started several years ago to revise the Ward lines. As this step would require special legislation, Mayor Weeks decided a few years ago not to attempt this change until 1934, when Ward lines can legally be made.

In accordance with the Mayor's suggestion in his inaugural address, the Board of Aldermen a couple of months ago voted to have a committee of its members appointed to study this problem. Those appointed on this committee were Aldermen Bowen, Gallagher, Cronin, Chandler, Cordingley, Jamison and Collins.

Mayor Weeks instructed the Assessors' office to redistrict the city into seven Wards on the basis of population, with Wards 5 and 6, where more territory remains for future development, to contain smaller numbers of voters. The new Ward lines, as planned by the Assessors, would utterly change the character of Newton. The Wards in Newton, since its institution as a city, have been laid out with the various villages of the city as Ward units. Newton and Nonantum, the most populous sections of the city in the past, contained two Wards, 1 and 7. Newtonville and part of Nonantum composed Ward 2. Ward 3 was confined to West Newton. Ward 4 included Auburndale and Lower Falls. When the city was established, the only thickly populated Ward was Ward 5, Upper Falls, and this Ward also included Newton Highlands, Waban and much of Oak Hill. Ward 6 contained within its confines Newton Centre and Chestnut Hill.

The city of Newton is unique. It is quite probable that few, if any municipalities in the United States developed as did Newton. Nearly a century ago the main line of the Boston & Worcester Railroad was constructed along the north side of the then Town of Newton with railroad stations located about one mile apart. There had been Colonial villages at Newton Corner and West Parish; two miles apart. The railroad company built stations at these two places and they were eventually designated as Newton and West Newton. Between them a station was built at Hull's Crossing which was called Newtonville. About a mile beyond West Newton another station was located and called Auburndale. A branch line was run to the old manufacturing village of Newton Lower Falls. Communities grew up around these railroad stations, each with its own business section, churches and schools, and each became a social and political unit. About a half century ago the Circuit Branch was constructed and railroad facilities afforded to the old villages of Newton Centre; to the newly developed district at Newton Highlands and to the scattered residences at sparsely settled Waban. At these villages, as at those on the North side of the city, distinct communities life developed. And the same held true at the old industrial district of Newton Upper Falls, served by the New England Railroad.

Practically the only mediums for bringing the residents of the various villages together prior to this century were fraternal organizations and the acquaintances formed in Newton High School. The formation of the Newton Club nearly a half century ago created a social-political body which for many years determined largely the selection of Newton's Mayors, but each larger village could choose its own residents as Aldermen from its Ward. When the Common Council was abolished and each Ward allotted three aldermen, it became the practice in those Wards which contained more than one village, to accord the smaller village in the Ward one of the three aldermen. Thus for many years Lower Falls had one alderman of the three from Ward 4 and Auburndale two, Newton Highlands had one of the three aldermen from Ward 5, Upper Falls and Waban one each. Newton Centre had two of the three aldermen from Ward 6 and Chestnut Hill the third. Nonantum was supposed to have one of the three aldermen from Ward 1, but for a considerable number of years this former practice had not been followed in this Ward.

Under the present ward lines, Ward 1 includes in Precinct 1 that part of Nonantum bounded by Watertown, the Charles River, the North side of Chapel st. and the area to the West of Laundry Brook, which can be defined roughly as territory West of Jackson rd., as the brook is now covered and can't be seen. Precinct 2 of Ward One is bounded by the Watertown line, Emerson and Channing sts. and along the west side of Centre st. to Mill st., thence along Blake st. by Edmonds Park to Adams st.

Ward 2 includes all the area known as Newtonville, and that part of Nonantum from the south side of Chapel st., including Adams and Watertown sts. and the adjacent district. Its southern boundary is Mill st. from the Ward 1 boundary to Morton st. thence along Morton st. to Commonwealth ave. and westerly to Valentine st., along Bigelow rd. and Forest ave. to Mount Vernon st., along Washington st. to Eddy st., Albemarle rd. and North st.

Ward 3 includes West Newton. It starts at the Waltham line and is bounded on the east by the westerly boundary of Ward 2. Its southern boundary is along Commonwealth ave. to Fuller and Washington sts.; thence along Greenwood, Auburn and Crescent sts. to the B & A railroad; thence along Murray road, Auburndale ave. and River sts. to Lexington st. at the Waltham line and to the boundary of Ward 4.

Ward 4 which includes Auburndale and Lower Falls starts at the Waltham line on the North, is bounded on the East by Ward 3; on the South by Washington st. from Commonwealth ave. to Beacon st., including the area to Varick rd. and the Cochituate aqueduct. Westerly it is bounded by the Charles River.

Ward 5 is bounded westerly, and northeasterly by Ward 4 along Commonwealth ave. and land of the Newton Cemetery; easterly by Beacon st. to Walnut st.; southerly by Walnut st. and Berwick rd. to Lake ave. and Rogers st.; thence by Centre and Clark sts. to Boylston st. Southeast-erly it is bounded by Florence st. to the boundary of Brookline; by the West Roxbury line and by the Charles River at the Needham line.

Ward 6 is bounded by Brookline on the east; by the boundary of Ward 5 on the southwest; on the West by Ward 5 along Walnut st.; on the North by the southerly boundary of Ward 7 along Montrose and Cotton sts. to Centre st., thence along Mill st. by the boundary of Ward 1; thence along the boundary of Ward 2 on Morton st. and Commonwealth ave. to Forest ave.

OUR LADY HIGH OFF TO FINE START IN 1934 CATHOLIC LEAGUE RACE

The Our Lady High School baseball team is off to a fine start in the Greater Boston Catholic High School League race with two victories in both of its games to date. On the holiday the local nine took the Cathedral High team of the South End into camp by a score of 16 to 7. On Monday of this week the Newton team chalked up another win at the expense of St. Mary's of Waltham.

In the Cathedral contests Centre-fielder O'Connell of the Our Lady team was outstanding. In five times at bat he hit a home run and a two bagger to count heavily in the day's scoring. Rightfielder Morris and pitcher McCarthy each hit a triple for the Newton team.

This afternoon the locals will try to protect their undefeated slate playing next winter according to announcements made last week. For the past several years the teams composing the league circuit have played one round on the indoor surface and have attempted to stage a second round on outdoor ice. Weather conditions have resulted in few games being played out of doors. Following a conference with Garden officials recently it was decided to arrange a schedule which would bring each team in competition with all the other teams twice during the season on the indoor surface, assuring the league of a full schedule.

HOCKEY LEAGUE PLANS FULL SCHEDULE NEXT WINTER AT GARDEN

The Greater Boston Interscholastic League is planning for a full schedule of games at the Boston Garden rink next winter according to announcements made last week. For the past several years the teams composing the league circuit have played one round on the indoor surface and have attempted to stage a second round on outdoor ice. Weather conditions have resulted in few games being played out of doors. Following a conference with Garden officials recently it was decided to arrange a schedule which would bring each team in competition with all the other teams twice during the season on the indoor surface, assuring the league of a full schedule.

Thus next winter the season will begin on Saturday, Dec. 15, with four games to be played as usual. Fourteen such sets of games will be arranged, with Saturdays and holidays and some evening dates being used to bring the schedule to a close on Mar. 2. The new schedule will undoubtedly meet with the approval of all scholastic hockey fans as it will insure more competition for the league as well as giving an opportunity for the fans to see more contests.

NEWTON HIGH STARTS SEASON WITH 8 TO 0 SHUTOUT OF COMMERCE

Coach Jeff Jones' 1934 Newton High School baseball nine opened its season on Wednesday afternoon blanking the Boston High School of Commerce out 8 to 0. While the cold wind and unsuitable weather may have had some effect upon the twirling abilities of Pete Healy of Commerce and may have played some tricks with the ball in front of the players there was every indication that the Newton team possesses a strong attack. The Newton regulars hit solidly ringing up twelve safe hits. Billy McDermott at third was the only Newton regular to fail to connect. Bunny Ryan, Newton twirler, provided the main feature of the game with a lusty wallop into deep right centre for a home run. Ryan also made a single for two hits in four trips to the plate. Pete Morrison connected for a long blow which should have been a home run but as the ball rolled between a group of youthful spectators in the outfield the umpire stopped the Newton catcher at second base. Morrison also got a single for two hits in his three trips to the plate. Charlie Mascia hit a triple and a single in four tries while first baseman Jimmy Byrne made two singles in four times at bat. Spilman, Capt. Flagg, Waters, and Johnson each made one single. Coach Jeff Jones used only one substitute, sending Plantadosi to second base to relieve Spilman in the last of the eighth. Newton chalked up its first run in the second frame due largely to Morrison's lusty blow. In the fourth Ryan's homer with one on was the backbone of a three-run rally. Mascia's triple and Flagg's infield out at first on which Mascia tallied was an additional counter in the fifth. Consistent hitting and a little sloppy fielding in the sixth gave Newton three more tallies as Ryan continued to hurl finely to keep the visitors from crowding the sacks.

This afternoon Newton opens the Suburban League season in the first of its two meetings with Cambridge Latin. Coach Jones' squad hopes to return from Russell Field, North Cambridge, with the victory under their belts.

NEWTON TENNIS TEAM LOSES TO MILTON ACAD.

The Newton High tennis team lost its opening match of the season last Saturday at the Milton Academy courts when the preparatory school team defeated the locals 8 to 1. Tom Slattery of Newton saved the orange and black a shutout by winning his singles match from Fiske in a hard three-set battle, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4. Geary, Spurrier, Haven, Merrill, and Donovan were the other Newton players in singles. Geary and Haven, Spurrier and Merrill and Slattery and McCutcheon were the Newton doubles teams.

SPORT NOTES

Maugus Tops Hunnewell

The Maugus team of Wellesley in the Newton bowling league won the 1934 honors in a close race with the Hunnewell Club team of Newton. The race was in doubt up to the final match which was rolled between these two teams at the Hunnewell alleys on Wednesday night. Last week Wednesday the Middlesex Club team of Arlington rolled Hunnewell on the former's alleys. Hunnewell was leading the Maugus team by one point. With Middlesex taking three out of four from Hunnewell and Maugus taking three out of four from Winsor the positions of the teams were reversed and Hunnewell was in second place by one point. Wednesday night of this week Maugus met Hunnewell and held the Newton team to an even division of the four points, thus retaining its one point margin and winning the season's honors. Maugus ended with a mark of 62-22 and Hunnewell with a mark of 61-23.

Elliott Club Wins Title

The Elliott Club of Newton won the intermediate title in the annual basketball tournament of the Boston Boys' Club which ended this week after several rounds of play. In the semi-final round the Elliott Club met the Newton Eagles, a team comprised largely of high school players, and won by a score of 45 to 27. In the final round the Elliott Club won from the Pale Face A. C. of Somerville in a 33 to 23 game. The Elliott Club was also awarded the President's cup for outstanding traits of champion and sportsmanship qualities by a vote of the referees. The Elliott Club is comprised of Dolbier, Smith and Trumble, forwards; Bass and Bagley, centres, and Merrill and Reitz, guards. In reaching the semi-final round the Newton Eagles disposed of the Allen Pals by a score of 40 to 26, the St. Stephens Comets, 25 to 23 and other teams by fairly large scores. The Eagles lined up with Laflie and Flagg, forwards; Frazer, centre, and Donovan, Skauen and Baker, guards.

Green Makes Fine Jump

Milton Green made a jump of 23 ft. in the Harvard annual handicap track meet last Saturday to win the event from scratch. Although ineligible this year Green is keeping in condition and should be a big asset to Harvard track during the next two years.

Prices in Europe

The price-level all over Europe is lower. That is especially true in Great Britain, where the pound sterling is practically at a par with the dollar. And the prices that affect tourists most are being still further reduced to compensate for any alteration in exchange rates... reductions of 20% to 50% in European railroad fares have already been announced. The fact is that, on any given scale of living, a trip to Europe costs less than anywhere else you could go!

Good Start Made In Effort For Better Pictures

The Newton Study Council for the improvement of motion pictures made an encouraging start the past week. Heretofore the more desirable of the two feature pictures on programs at the Paramount Theatre has been shown last on the program. One of the objects of the new organization striving to obtain better pictures is to have one night each week designated as "family night" at the Paramount Theatre, and on this night the picture of superior merit which has received the approval of the Study Council will be shown first on the program. This will permit children who attend with their parents arriving home early, and it will also enable the children to see the better type pictures without having first to sit through the showing of a picture not suitable for them.

At the request of the Study Council, Manager John Snider of the Paramount Theatre courteously cooperated by arranging the show on Monday night, April 23, so that the feature picture "It Happened One Night" was first on the program. Ladies interested in the movement for better pictures conducted a telephone campaign on a couple of days the preceding week with the result that the theatre was "sold out" on Monday night. Instead of having the usual small audience typical of Monday nights, many of those present thus had the opportunity to enjoy an excellent picture and leave the theatre with their children at a early hour of the night. The same plan will be used the coming Monday night when the film "David Harum" will be shown first, starting at 7:50.

In the future the Paramount Theatre will designate in its advertisements of programs by a star those pictures which have received the approval of the Newton Study Council.

Citizens Club to Present Musical Comedy May 22d

The Newton Citizens Club is making preparations for the selection of the cast, chorus and dances for the musical comedy "Page the Prince" which is to be staged at the Newton High School Auditorium on the evening of May 22nd. The personnel of the cast is expected to be complete within the next week when a professional Director from the John B. Rogers Company of Ohio will arrive to conduct first rehearsals and make final classifications. The Rogers Company will be remembered for their very successful presentation here of "Loose Change." "Page the Prince" is expected to surpass any of the former productions as reports from other cities have been most enthusiastic. Rehearsals will be held at the Club Room starting May 3rd. Among those in charge of committee arrangements are John Finelli, Simon Grinspoon, Dr. Alfred A. Amendola, Miss Catherine Lupo, Miss Helen Gentile, Mrs. Rose Mason, Louis De Rubis and Larry Tocci.

Newton Girls in Cast of Radcliffe Freshman Play

Two Newton girls, Louise Pinkham, 27 Ripley terrace, Newton Centre, and Emily Rockett, 110 Algonquin rd., Newton, are members of the cast of "Quality Street" by James M. Barrie, which is being given on April 26 and 27 in Agassiz Theater by the Freshman Class at Radcliffe College, and a third Newton girl, Stephanie Rushmore, 95 Dudley rd., is in charge of lights.

According to the custom of the college, members of the senior class will be the guests of the freshmen at the Thursday night performance, while the rest of the college will attend on Friday afternoon.

The play is under the direction of Margaret Page of Watertown, a member of the Dramatic committee of the Ider Club, and Ann Hodges, 1937, of Cambridge, is chairman.

Following the Friday afternoon performance, the Freshman Dance will be held in the Living Room, to which members of the class will each invite a guest. The play is open only to members of the college.

Five Girls Take 140- Mile Bicycle Trip

Jane Hesslein and Lillian Mancini of West Newton, Joyce Wheeler of Newtonville and Dorothy Gentzel and Louise Goodale of Newton took a 140 mile bicycle trip to the Cape over the week end. They were entertained by Mrs. Green and three daughters of Sagamore. They left home at 5:30 Saturday morning and arrived at Sagamore at 6 o'clock. They returned leaving Sagamore at 8:30 Sunday morning and arrived home at 8 o'clock. The girls say that this was no fair test of their riding ability, as they were held up a long time going down by the rain and by heavy traffic on Sunday.

The cast is a very able one and consists of Dorothy Melvin, Marjorie Bolster, Edith Horton, Addie Saunders, Barbara Ellis, Norma Willey, John Wakefield, Allan Bliss, Paul Leahy, Donald Cummins and Kenneth Cadman. The director is William C. Grobe, who was responsible for the outstanding performance of "The Patriarch," given by the Dramateurs in February.

SALTONSTALL CLEARS THE WAY

Speaker of the House Leverett Saltonstall announced yesterday that he would not seek a State-wide office next fall but would return to the House for another term. His announcement clears up the situation which has been troubling many Republican voters and office holders for several months. His announcement with a plea to get behind the probable Bacon-Haigis slate to head the State ticket will go a long way toward Republican harmony. There were many who would have endorsed Speaker Saltonstall for whatever office he eventually wished to seek. He is one of the most able and popular office holders in the State today. We trust that before many years he will be given the recognition from the voters of the Commonwealth that he justly deserves.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

The first pre-primary election for the purpose of naming delegates to the respective State conventions of the two parties could hardly be termed encouraging. While it is true that the few contests on the ballot did not arouse the interest of the voters to any great extent the fact that little more than five per cent of the voters went to the polls clearly indicates that those candidates endorsed by the coming convention may not be the popular choices of the voters. The test will come next September when these candidates are on the ballot with the endorsement of the convention.

AUTOMOBILE CERTIFICATES

The annual spring campaign for the certification of the condition of automobile brakes, lights, and other equipment will begin next Tuesday, May first. Registrar Ryan has asked the Newton police department to co-operate in seeing that all vehicles display the official sticker denoting the fact that they have been checked and are in proper condition. If you have not already had your car checked and have not a sticker or if you got your sticker early in the year and know your car is not in proper condition help the Safety campaign by having your car put in proper shape.

NEWTON LOSES A GOOD CITIZEN

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the passing of Miss Elizabeth Spear, for many years a resident of Newton, who devoted her time and energies to worthwhile causes. The world in general and Newton in particular is better for her having lived among us.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

The new ward lines, as planned by the Assessors' Department, will give the good folks something to talk about and kick about during the next few months. This is not a criticism of the Assessors' Department. Orders were given to devise new ward lines according to population and this was done. Now, the citizens of Newton can tear the plans to pieces and suggest better plans.

Newton has so large a percentage of its population composed of persons who have resided in this city but for a few years, that the portent of the proposed political revision of the city does not impress them one way or the other. Their knowledge of the city is quite limited. But, to old residents, such as yours truly, the plan as proposed is funny. It is weird. Take for instance the new lines for Ward 1. This ward would include all those parts of the present Ward 1 and Ward 7 north of the B. & A. tracks. This would necessitate placing in new Ward 1 a narrow sliver of territory now in Ward 7 east of Centre st. and containing within its confines Charlesbank rd., Nonantum pl., Jefferson st. and a few houses on Maple and Williams sts. abutting Watertown. By all rhyme and reason this little area ought to be retained in the proposed Ward 7. Why in heaven's name it is included in Ward 1 we can't understand, unless it would be to keep the lowlanders of Newton Corner apart from the apparently more prosperous highlanders on Hunnewell Hill and Mount Ida. In past years some snobbish persons in Newton regarded the railroad tracks as a sort of "Mason & Dixon line."

Instead of creating a new ward by the simple method of taking all the territory north of the B. & A. tracks from Faneuil to the Waltham line at Calvary Cemetery, and by so doing mixing up the villages of Newton Corner, Nonantum, Newtonville and West Newton, why not adopt another simple plan that would largely retain the present unity of Newton Corner. Why not take Precinct 2 of Ward 1 with 2014 voters and join it with Ward 7 which has 3030 voters? This would make a distinctly Newton Corner ward with 5044 voters, only 59 more than the ward planned by the Assessors would contain.

One of Newton's oldest and best loved residents ended a long and useful life on April 21. For nearly 70 years Miss Elizabeth Spear of Walnut Park devoted her time and wealth in aiding the poor of Newton. The amount of charitable work she performed during her long life was tremendous. She made no distinction as to creed or race. She made no pretensions of being a trained social worker, but the practical work she did for those in need was quite effective.

If you have a privet hedge and it has shared the fate of most privet hedges in this climate, because of the severe winter just passed, you might as well cut it down to the ground. The barberry hedges proved they can take it. They are blooming.

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles has started a campaign to apprehend the many owners of automobiles in Massachusetts who are violating the law by not having their cars properly registered in this State. To avoid paying the compulsory liability insurance charges, many "wise" persons have had their cars registered in other States. Some of these persons are driving cars registered in States where they spend a couple of months in the summer, or where they occasionally go on week-ends. Ordinarily we don't believe in squealing. But, if in your neighborhood there is any automobile owner who is driving an uninsured car, registered outside of Massachusetts, it is your duty to yourself and the public to report such an individual to the Registry of Motor Vehicles or to the Newton police.

The practice of pulling false alarms is increasing. It has caused fatal accidents when fire apparatus has been responding to such alarms. It deprives the public of proper protection for life and property. It causes considerable expense to overburdened taxpayers. Those found guilty of pulling false alarms should not be let off with small fines or suspended sentences. Severe punishment is the only way to stop this practice.

ONE THING.... AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

If you find it isn't convenient to take an active part in the observance of "Arbor and Bird Day" remember a smile of approval is always in order.

Oddments

It may be a trifle late for a Patriot's Day story but you know there were those funny rules of the post-office department to think of and anyway this didn't come to me until last Sunday. A good husband and father planned for a day of hard labor and resolved that he would be undisturbed. So he bade his wife take the car and the children and the dog and spend the day with her people some 20 miles up State. Meanwhile he made a list of odd jobs for himself. The family seemed pleased and, as the husband had a right to believe, were grateful. As the car was turning out of the driveway farewells were waved back and forth. "Don't forget to have a good time," called the man. "We won't," his wife replied, "and don't you forget the storm windows and the screens."

Not infrequently I find that there are people who take their recreation pretty seriously. It may be necessary in order to promote the general success of an undertaking and therefore I can only say, "Far be it from me to criticize." However, a group of friends who make a practice of taking long walks for the benefit to be derived are fussier than you would think. They insist upon maintaining a certain pace, of covering not less than a specified number of miles and halting at just so many places for rest. Furthermore, they won't allow dogs to accompany them so any member who wants to exercise his canine friend must choose some other time. Probably there are other rules all of which must be observed. To one who like myself prefers to saunter the whole idea seems too methodical and business-like. Probably I'm wrong again.

Heave Ho and Then Some

There are enthralling mysteries which do not relate to crime and just to prove that I can become interested in puzzles let me tell you a little about a winter weather which chills up your spine or make your hair stand on end I herewith proceed. This has to do with the blue ocean or rather with salt water and the creatures who thrive on it and below and above the surface.

It also contains a word of cheer for those of us who love our Cape Cod Summer sojourns and particularly the things we get to eat there. Furthermore, it has a kind word for our recent Winter which all of us have been grumbling about, more or less. Sounds complicated, but I think I can make myself clear.

A genuine Cape Cod fisherman, with a bronzed face and a sturdy manner started all this. I happened to ask him what effect our winter weather had on fish and what those of us who yearn for sea food, lobsters especially, might expect this coming Summer. At once my fisherman friend told me that the ice that was so thick and plentiful was really seasonal and in consequence caused the fish to follow their regular habits. In other words an open Winter upset their calculations. When conditions are mild lobsters and other fish are apt, as my friend put it, to "straggle" instead of doing their regular hibernating stuff. But with ice floes and low temperatures they proceed in schools and, hanging together, avoid as best they can the frigid conditions.

This is the very thing they've been at this Winter which, the fisherman declared, will make for plenty of good deep-sea fishing and the other kind, too. He even says that lobsters will follow their usual program and put for the shore. "They won't stop until they get to the beach," he averred. So delighted was I that I made him repeat. Then I asked him if we could count on plenty of fish and lobsters and he replied, "As I look at it this should be a big Summer for that sort of thing." I mentioned several varieties, the kind I have an appetite for, including swordfish, and he gladly reiterated his assurance.

Now for another plunge into the weird and hidden. An acquaintance believes so strongly in the curative powers of salt water that he has a quart of it scooped up at Marblehead and delivered to him regularly each week. Uses it for a gargle and nasal spray. Says his father learned about it years ago from an English physician in Madagascar. Sounds odd to one who knows nothing of medicine but, as I said when we started, one mystery to me is as good as another.

Quiet But Not Lonely

What appeared to me as a dismal job isn't quite that as I have learned I refer to the duties of a night watchman. How dull and dreary it must be, I often thought, to wander among the vast emptiness of a large building, in and out of offices which during the day were peopled by busy men and women. The loneliness has impressed me more deeply when I have had to remain after hours to catch up on some work and found the patient, plodding custodian waving a bunch of keys and looking solemnly through unoccupied rooms.

My views have changed. It's not as bad as my imagination pictured. Listen to what was poured into my ear:

"A lot of people think we have a snap, but they're dead wrong," said the weary watchman. "We have plenty to do and all because other folks are forgetful or just downright cussed. Instead of locking doors and windows they just clear out and leave everything for us to do. I can't begin to tell you how many leave things on the desks and stuff lying around that should have been put away."

"Maybe they don't care, but it's our job to keep things straight and you can bet that if we didn't they

Specific Objectives of Guidance in the Elementary School

Consistent with the general aim and scope of guidance, the Newton schools recognize the importance of the pupil problems which exist in the elementary school. In many of these are found the beginnings of maladjustments which might seriously blight a child's personality if allowed to go unchecked. Complexes, fears, compensations, and other evidences of mental ill-health which are not discovered and remedied will not only prevent children from getting from life all that it should hold for them, but may lead to more serious results.

Assisting children to make happy adjustments at this stage of their development cannot but result in a reduction in the number and kind of problems which are met in the junior and senior high schools.

Guidance in the elementary school not only attempts to promote healthy mental attitudes, but it also attempts to promote normal social growth. Since co-operative living is social living, we can not assist children too early to correct those anti-social habits which may prevent them from leading normal social lives. We must stimulate in them the desire for normal and happy human relationships, that through these experiences, they may grow in social adaptability.

Guidance must be provided so that the children of elementary school age will not over-tax their physical natures to meet the requirements of intensive educational programs and over-ambitious parents. This is particularly true in the case of those gifted children whose mental development so greatly exceeds their physical development that they very often are working beyond the limit of their physical capacity. Guidance has a service to render to those unfortunate children who do not possess the physical equipment of the normal child. They must be guided carefully that they may make the most of themselves within their limitations.

Guidance at this level must progressively adapt school tasks to the capacity of the child to perform them. It must be constantly on the alert to challenge the maximum response from each and every individual. It must assist in providing that kind of an educational environment that will be most conducive to the maximum growth of each. It attempts to effect adjustments when needed, which take into account the innate difference of individuals, and does not recommend that children attempt tasks before there is evidence of a real readiness and desire to begin them. It makes use of those opportunities for aiding children in evaluating their work habits, that they may increase in personal effectiveness.

These opportunities and many others are indicative of the service which we may render to children in our elementary schools, through the agency of guidance. It is a challenge that we can not overlook, if we are interested in the total welfare of the child.

Proposed Changes In Ward Lines

the Ward 6 line, on the North by the Charles River to the Watertown line at the junction of Jefferson and Maple sts., and on the West by the Ward 1 line along Emerson, Channing and Centre sts.

The number of voters in the various Wards at present is—Ward One, 3055; Ward Two, 5761; Ward Three, 4894; Ward Four, 3386; Ward Five, 6301; Ward Six, 6229; Ward Seven, 3030. The number of voters in the proposed new wards would be—Ward One, 4981; Ward Two, 4712; Ward Three, 4793; Ward Four, 4704; Ward Five, 4588; Ward Six, 4205; Ward Seven, 4673.

The new ward lines, as planned by the Assessors are based solely on population; village lines are disrupted. Some of the proposed Wards contain parts of four villages and dissect existing villages even in the midst of their business sections. It is planned to hold hearings in various parts of the city to discuss the proposed changes, and that vigorous protests will be made in an assured fact. Many citizens suggest that a new ward be laid out at the South Side of the city as a means of allowing the different villages to continue as separate political units.

The proposed changes will cause Ward 1 to be bounded on the South by the Boston & Albany railroad tracks from the Brighton line to Walnut st. at Newtonville sq.; on the West by Walnut, Crafts and Waltham sts. to the Waltham line at Calvary Cemetery; on the North by the Charles River and the Watertown line. This new Ward would include that part of Precinct 1 of Ward 7 north of the B. & A. tracks with 771 voters. That part of Precinct 2 of Ward 7 which includes the small triangle bounded by the tracks, Centre and Washington sts. at Newton Corner. The only dwelling in this area is the Whitman Block with 15 voters. The Ward would contain that part of Precinct 2 of the present Ward 1, north of the B. & A. tracks, with 786 voters, and Precinct 1 of Ward 1 (Nonantum), with 1041 voters. It would include Precinct 1 of Ward 2 with 1307 voters; Precinct 3 of Ward 2 (Nonantum) with 854 voters; and that section of Precinct 1 of Ward 3 bounded by North, Crafts and Waltham sts. to the Waltham line.

The proposed Ward 2 will be confined largely to the present Newtonville district. It will include Precinct 2 of Ward 2 with 1591 voters; Precinct 4 of Ward 2 with 1172 voters; Precinct 5 of Ward 2 with 837 voters; that part of Precinct 1 of Ward 3 west of Albemarle rd. and Eddy st. and east of Waltham st., with 1035 voters; and that part of Precinct 4 of Ward 6 between Cedar, Morton, Mill st. and Commonwealth ave. with 77 voters. This proposed Ward would cause many residents of West Newton, from Waltham st. to Eddy st. and Albemarle rd. to become a minority in the Newtonville Ward.

The proposed Ward 3 includes that part of Precinct 1 of the present Ward 3 between Waltham and Cherry sts. and between Chestnut and Putnam sts., with 613 voters; Precinct 2 of Ward 3, except the little area between Commonwealth ave. and Fuller st., with 1528 voters; Precinct 3 of Ward 3, with 1464 voters; Precinct 1 of Ward 4, except West of Lexington st. and Commonwealth ave., with 964 voters; that part of Precinct 3 of Ward 4 between Crescent and Greenough sts. and Commonwealth Fre., with 224 voters. In short, this new Ward would include most of West Newton with that part of Auburndale east of Lexington st. and Commonwealth ave.

The proposed Ward 4 will cover a large area. It will include that part of Precinct 1 of Ward 4 west of Lexington st. and the avenue, with 948 voters; Precinct 2 of Ward 4, Lower Falls, with 345 voters; Precinct 3 of Ward 4, except between Greenough st. and the avenue, with 905 voters; Precinct 3 of Ward 5, which includes Waban, with 2031 voters; Precinct 1 of Ward 5 between Radcliffe rd., the railroad tracks and Boylston st., with 209 voters; Precinct 2 of Ward 5, between Winslow rd. and Beethoven ave., with 51 voters; that part of Precinct 2 of Ward 3 between Fuller st. and Commonwealth ave., with 47 voters; that part of Precinct 4 of Ward 6 west of Walnut st. and between Commonwealth ave. and Beacon st., with 166 voters. This last area includes the site of the new City Hall, so both Auburndale and Waban could claim to have the city hall in their sections if this widespread Ward were created.

The proposed Ward 5 would include Precinct 1 of present Ward 5, (Upper Falls) except the section between Radcliffe road and Boylston street, with 1035 voters; Precinct 2 of Ward 5, except between Winslow Road and Beethoven avenue, with 1538 voters; Precinct 4 of Ward 5, west of Dedham and Parker streets, with 1127 voters; that part of Precinct 2 of Ward 6 west of Parker street, with 888 voters. In short, Ward 5 would lose Waban and that part of Oak Hill east of Dedham and Parker streets; it would add that part of Ward 6 between Parker and Clark streets.

The proposed Ward 6 would include that part of Precinct 1 of present Ward 6 south of Commonwealth avenue, with 535 voters; Precinct 2 of Ward 6, east of Parker street, with 1301 voters; Precinct 3 of Ward 6, except north of Commonwealth avenue, with 955 voters; Precinct 4 of Ward 6, except those sections north of the avenue and west of Walnut street, with 1086 voters; that part of Precinct 4 of Ward 5, (Oak Hill) east of Dedham and Parker streets, with 308 voters. Ward 6 would lose its present area north of Commonwealth avenue to Ward 7, and its area west of Parker street to Ward 5. It would add that part of Oak Hill now in Ward 5.

The proposed Ward 7 would include that part of its present Precinct 1 south of the B. & A. tracks, with 383 voters; the present Precinct 2 of Ward 7 with 1861 voters; that part of Precinct 2 of Ward 1, including Richardson and Church sts. and Mount Ida, with 1228 voters; that part of Ward 6 lying north of Commonwealth avenue, with 1201 voters. The present Ward would lose the area north of the B. & A. tracks to Ward 1. It would add that part of Ward 1 south of the tracks, and that part of Ward 6 north of the avenue.

Rotary Club

The Newton Rotary Club was delightfully entertained by John M. Bierer, President of the Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts, by an illustrated lecture on Mexico. Mr. Bierer exhibited colored slides, which he made, to show the picturesque coloring of this strange country on his trip recently from Vera Cruz to Mexico City.

The speaker very interestingly brought out the large part the race of Aztecs had in early history, as learned from the pyramids erected about 5000 years ago. Some of these are now being reclaimed by the Mexican government. The two most important pyramids, "The Pyramid of the Sun" and "The Pyramid of the Moon," were used in the religious life of the early natives for sacrificial offerings. Here, too, was found the stone of time where is recorded the 360-day year and five extra days, and the eighteen-hour day.

Police News

Samuel Magazzu, 18, of 184 California st., Nonantum, appeared in the Newton court on last Friday charged with committing a burglary at the Day Junior High School in Newtonville on the night of April 12th. Magazzu claimed that he was drunk, wandered into the school building and received a gashed artery in one of his wrists when a companion stabbed him. The police charged that Magazzu was attempting to break open a safe in the principal's office at the school and gashed his wrist when he broke a pane of glass while trying to enter the tool room at the school. Judge Allen held Magazzu for the Grand Jury and placed the amount of his bail at $10,000.

Robert Barbour of 196 Washington st., Brookline, was in the Newton court last Friday charged with driving a car without proper number plates and for ignoring a STOP sign before entering a through street. Judge Allen, who was on the bench, did not punish Barbour on either charge, but placed both charges on file. Patrolman Smith testified that he stopped Barbour for driving a car without a rear number plate and warned him to put one on. The next day Smith caught Barbour entering the through street without heading the STOP sign and the rear number plate was still missing. In court the same day a charge against Rinaldo Santucci of 419 Langley rd., Newton Centre, of driving a car without proper lights was placed on file. John Signore of 364 Boylston st., Newton Centre, was fined $5 for violating a traffic regulation.

Overnight Hike
Season Opens at Camp Mary Day

Camp Mary Day is open for overnight hikes. The season started with the commencement of the spring vacation. During the week the village cabins housed groups of Girl Scouts—some of them having their first experience of an overnight hike at camp.

The Pioneer group were glad of a wet day as they had to build a fire and cook a meal in the rain as part of their Pioneer test.

Clean-up Day the early part of the week was a great success. Over 200 girls with their leaders arrived at Camp in the morning and spent a busy, happy day working and playing games until the late afternoon. The girls were divided into groups each assigned to a different part of the camp; cleaning up underbrush, raking up leaves, and clearing up the grounds generally after the long winter. Girls washed windows in the camp house, swept it clean, and put the porches in order while another group swept out the cabins and emptied the rubbish.

After work came dinner. All the fire places were in use and many and varied good things were cooked. The girls consumed 10 gallons of cocoa which was cooked in the main kitchen. After dinner games were played until three o'clock when the flag was lowered with due ceremony. As the flag was lowered, the rain began to fall, but the girls found shelter in the many cabins and enjoyed the last hour playing games in small groups. At 5:30 no one was left but the overnight hikers.

Registration for the summer camp starts on Monday, April 23. It is expected that a large number of girls will wish to spend a part of their vacation at Camp Mary Day and those applying early will have more chance of getting their first choice of the period they wish to be there.

Troop 7—Upper Falls with Mrs. George Reel, Captain, and six of the newest Girl Scouts and Helen Oldfield, a camper of experience, enjoyed a trip to the Mason Cabin.

Troop 21, senior troop in Newton Highlands, with Miss Ruth Wilkie and Miss Lilla Cavanaugh made use of the Newton Highlands Cabin and two groups of girls from Troop 30, Newton Centre with their Captain Miss Claire McCarthy and Miss Elizabeth Kilburn of West Newton had their first overnight hike experience in the Newton Centre Cabin.

Miss Margaret Adams, the Field Captain, with Miss Constance Reel of Newtonville occupied the West Newton Cabin with a Pioneer group for a few days. Sunshine and bright days added to the enjoyment of the trips, but rain and wet weather did not make the experience any less Lately, he has been prominent in voicing the demand that more attention be paid by the N. R. A. to the protection of the consumer and the small business man. His most recent victory was in getting the Senate to pass his resolution providing for a Senatorial investigation of the activities of munitions industries after it had been publicly approved by Secretary of State Cordell Hull. Professor Kirtley F. Mather of Newton Centre will preside at the meeting.

Geo. L. Griffin & Son Co.
Noted for Quality Furs

When George L. Griffin started in the fur business his son Ralph M. Griffin joined him. That was back in 1898. Prior to that time Ralph had been learning the business from the ground up in a fur factory—working at the bench.

From the start, thirty-six years ago, George L. Griffin & Son won recognition as furriers. The Griffin Store on Washington st. attracted discriminating fur buyers for thirty-four years, and when that store was finally closed much regret was expressed by the people who had come to depend upon Griffin furs, as all did who bought them, for they were furs of first quality.

Not long after the closing of the Washington Street Store, however, George L. Griffin & Son opened its present store at 38 Chauncy st. It is now George L. Griffin and Son Company, because a master craftsman in furs, A. Yanco has joined the organization; so in addition to ready-to-wear furs, George L. Griffin & Son Company offer custom-made furs of rare distinction, and at amazingly moderate prices. They do repairing and restyling of furs, too; cleanse them, and George L. Griffin & Son Company's Cold Storage facilities are second to none.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Griffin have lived at 92 Carlton rd., in Waban, for nineteen years. Incidentally, Mrs. Mabel Ina Griffin works side by side with her husband, and her millinery department lends an attractive touch to the showrooms of George L. Griffin & Son Company at 38 Chauncy st., Boston.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS

The members of Mrs. A. A. Cunningham, Tent 2, D. of V., will go to the Arlington Tent, D. of V., to present the Traveling Shield this evening. They will furnish the entertainment and collation.

All-Day Bazaar And May Breakfast Offers Attractions

The Newton Centre Woman's Club will hold the last big event of the year on Tuesday, May first—an All-Day Bazaar; the Recipe for which has been laid down by Mrs. Harold Jaques, a clever advertiser of many attractions, as follows:

Recipe for "Festival Pie"
Prepare pie filling in the following manner: Assemble 1 good Ways and Means Committee about February 1. Weigh plans, opinions and ideas and sift several times. Then take 1 table each of candy, food, household furnishings, aprons, art novelties, books, puzzles and toys and season well with "grace." Put all in a large Club House to "work," gently stirring once a week, after adding a dash of confidence and enthusiasm. On May 1, line a pie plate with one large fresh green Club House lawn and spread out filling which should now be ready. Prepare canvas in strips for top crust and cover all. Bake in hot sun. Surround with potted plants and flowers and serve. Decorate table with one May Pole, one White Elephant and a few ponies. Recipe serves at least 2,000 and is approved by the American Home Committee and many other Good Club Housekeepers who are helping the Ways and Means Committee. As a side dish prepare 1 LUNCH BAR open for service at 11:30 a. m. The above pie is just as appetizing if made indoors except that the bottom crust will not be as tender. Full flavor best appreciated after enjoying with your family and friends a real old-fashioned MAY BREAKFAST to be served at 7 a. m., at the Club House.

Mrs. Edith H. Capron, chairman of Publicity, adds,

We hope for sunshine and flowers. But if we have any real showers

We can go right inside

With the doors open wide

And no welcome will ever beat ours!

There will be many things of special interest for the children: pony rides, trained dogs, Punch and Judy shows, grubs, and other features. It will give much entertainment, as well, for all the family, and no one should miss attending this affair.

On Friday, May 4th, at one p. m. there will be held the Annual Luncheon, followed by the Annual business meeting of the Club at 2:30 p. m.

Another appealing affair OPEN TO THE PUBLIC for the small admission fee of 50 cents is the lecture to be given at the Club House Thursday evening, May 3rd, at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Literature committee, when Dr. Miriam Franc Skirball will speak on "The Recent Biographies of King Edward VII of England." Mrs. Skirball will review books recently written by André Maurois and E. F. Benson, so presenting this monarch both from the Frenchman's viewpoint and from that of the loyal subject of the king, in the present day.

on April 17th at the meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club and the afternoon was placed in charge of the Music chairman, Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols, her committee having arranged the program. Great pleasure was afforded the members when they heard Marion Selee, Mezzo-contralto, and Gertrude Litchfield, Pianist, in an original and unique program. These artists, well-known both at home and abroad, have distinguished themselves in their respective fields. Miss Selee's beautiful voice was first heard in a group of five songs and an encore, displaying her excellent range and power. The next group, three Chopin etudes, played by Miss Litchfield, delighted her audience, and her second group of modern miscellaneous compositions was brilliant and wonderfully executed. For the remainder of the program, Miss Selee interpreted characters from "Carmen," "Hansel and Gretel" and "Shanewis," in costume, displaying her magnificent voice and dramatic ability to great advantage, and winning deserved applause. As the witch in "Hansel and Gretel," her appearance, voice, and acting made a perfect characterization, and in the Spring Song of the Robin Woman from "Shanewis," Miss Selee, in her lovely Indian costume, was charming. The Club is indebted to the chairman of the Music committee who made this distinctive program possible. A very attractive tea and pleasant social hour followed, under the direction of Mrs. Henry M. Weldner.

At the Annual Meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club held on Tuesday, the 24th, the following officers for 1934-35 were re-elected or elected unanimously: President, Mrs. Edwin P. Crave; vice-presidents, Mrs. J. Mace Andrews, Mrs. Frank E. May, Mrs. George H. Tracy; recording secretary, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. Charles Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Adam Haug; secretary of finance, Mrs. Fred M. Auburndale Woman's Club

The Annual Meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club was held at the Woodland Golf Club on Tuesday, April 24th. This being the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Club, the luncheon was in the form of a reception to the past presidents and to founders. Miss Anne E. Bunker, treasurer of the Club since its formation, was the toastmistress. Mrs. Charles E. Brown spoke on the founding of the Club and Mrs. Arthur W. Lane on its purposes and an original poem read by Mrs. Lane was greatly enjoyed. Miss H. Louise Peloubet, also one of the founders, commented on the founding. Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Wilbur D. Gilpatrick, Mrs. Charles C. Wilson, and Mrs. Walter Van Patten Steiger responded to the toast "If I Were President Now." Mrs. H. W. Spicer, of Short Hills, New Jersey, who has kept her membership in the Club, was an honor guest and brought her message of good will to the Club. The Club Chorus which was disbanded several years ago, was present, and under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Spaulding, sang several of the numbers which had been favorites with the Club in years past.

At the head table was a large birthday cake with twenty candles. In addition, beside each member's plate, was an individual birthday cake with a candle on it. The color scheme throughout was yellow and white, with jonquils and daffodils in abundance.

At the conclusion of a short business meeting, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, president, presiding, the yearly report of the officers was given. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew; first vice-president, Mrs. George A. Follett; second vice-president, Mrs. Edward B. Gray; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Appelt; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edwin E. Nash; treasurer, Miss Anne Bunker; directors for three years, Mrs. Herbert Althens and Mrs. Stuart Southgate; and Nominating committee, Mrs. James G. Patterson, Mrs. Fred W. Prior, and Miss Gertrude M. Young.

A reception was held to the newly-elected officers concluding a pleasant afternoon.

Newton Federation

The last of the meetings of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs for this season was held on April 23rd at the Newton Centre Library. Two communications of interest were read by Mrs. George H. Jackson, corresponding secretary, one from Mrs. James Donovan, secretary of the Volunteer Service Bureau of the American Red Cross, seeking reliable volunteers who will contribute time and effort to their work, and the other from Lillian J. Kane, president of the Massachusetts State Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists Association, asking that the Newton clubwomen in favor of the so-called Hairdressers' Bill request Senator Hollis and Representative Luitweller to vote "Yes." A notice was also read to the effect that the Lucy

Fine Exhibit of Water Colors by Noted Artists

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested to visit the Exhibit of Water-Colors at the Gallery of the Newtonville Woman's Club, presented from May 7th to 12th inclusive, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily. Tea will be served each afternoon. There is no admission fee.

Jackson Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls will be open on Thursdays from 2 to 5 p. m. during July and August.

Mrs. Clarence H. Spike, chairman of the American Home committee, gave a report of the Home Visiting Day from which venture the committee cleared well over a hundred dollars. After discussion as to the use to which this money should be put, Mrs. Spike moved that $75 be used as a scholarship gift to a Newton High School young woman, preferably one wishing to follow the study of subjects relating to the home, the decision, however, to be left to the faculty of the High School; the remainder of the proceeds to be added to the treasury of the Federation. This vote was unanimously carried, with expression of pleasure at the success of the project undertaken by the American Home committee. Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, president of the Auburndale Club, offered a resolution in rhyme from the group of twenty-five women from Auburndale who enjoyed the trip.

For the Annual Meeting, Mrs. J. Earle Parker will consolidate the reports of the presidents of the clubs, and Mrs. Edwin T. Gibbs, those of the presidents of the associate organizations. Although the reports of the chairmen are to be filed separately, Mrs. George J. Murphy will combine them, and will read one report covering the salient points of all, excepting that of Mrs. Robert Boner, Community Service chairman, who has been requested by the Board to write her report, with the idea that it will be read in full, the relief work done by this group of women has assumed unexpected proportions through the past year and the Board feels that there should be a full report.

The Conservation chairman, Mrs. Edwin H. Dyer, asked that the message be carried to all clubs that the State Federation Forest at Petersham furnished ideal picnic grounds throughout the summer, and all clubwomen are invited and urged to avail themselves of this reservation. Her committee hopes to be able to sponsor a "Garden Day" next year, patterned after the Home Visiting Day, as there are many beautiful gardens within the city whose owners would be willing to show them.

The program was outlined for May 7th, the day of the Annual Meeting by Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg. More complete details will be announced next week, but a musical treat awaits those who attend this meeting. Edmond Boucher, Basso Cantante, will be the soloist, accompanied by Edwin Biltcliffe. Mr. John Lund will talk for a few minutes. Tickets for the luncheon preceding the meeting may be had from Mrs. C. H. Lippincott, 121 Adena road, West Newton, telephone W. N. 2518-W, or from the club presidents. No tickets will be sold after May 5th.

The Public Health Survey suggested by Dr. Louise Leverone, State chairman, will probably be delayed until fall according to the tentative plans of Mrs. Clarence C. Smith, Public Health chairman. Miss Elizabeth P. Bartlett reported receipts of $5,133. from the sale of the Health Christmas Seals. Mrs. D. Earl Brackett being ill, Mrs. J. Earle Parker gave a brief report on the efforts being made at this time by an interested group to improve the motion picture programs shown in this city and asked for co-operation with the manager of the Newton Paramount Theatre to the extent of patronizing and advertising high-grade films. Mrs. Charles C. Willson, president, called to attention the need of the Child Welfare division of the State Federation and also the Physically Handicapped division, for volunteer workers in this city.

It was voted to have the by-laws of the Newton Federation printed in the 1934-35 edition of the Year Book.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

The Hospitality committee, Mrs. Ernest R. Adams, chairman, had charge of the delicious luncheon served to the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, by Seller, in the Congregational Parish House on Tuesday, April 24th, at one o'clock. Over two hundred women were seated at tables decorated

Day Jr. High School

Mr. R. V. Burkhard, principal of this school, attended the Tenth Junior-Senior High School Conference of New York University on April 13 and 14. The high light of the convention, according to Mr. Burkhard, was an address by Dr. I. Lefkowitz on "Teachers and the New Deal."

The following Monday Mr. Burkhard attended the Massachusetts Superintendents' Conference at Bridgewater where Superintendent Ballou of Washington, D. C. was the outstanding speaker. His central idea was that the public must know what the schools are doing. He was dubious of federal aid for schools. Dr. Payson Smith, commissioner of education in this state, said in his speech that the so-called "fads" in the schools should be justifying themselves. He claimed that communities should seek the best teachers everywhere, because they are the best, rather than insisting that teachers come from the local community.

ing from the ages of five to fifteen.

"The Music Master" Thrills Audiences

For two nights April 20 and 21 the characters of Charles Klein in the Music Master again walked the stage before enraptured audiences at the Newton Centre. After David Warfield's immediate first night success in 1904 the play ran for 1007 nights. It was the rare privilege of the Newton Dramatic Club to present the 1008th and 1009th performance. On Saturday,
April 28th the same cast will play it at the Allin Congregational Church in Dedham. Mr. Allen Hibbard of Dedham is in charge of seats.

It is to the great credit of the Newton Dramatic Club in securing the rights of this play—to the extraordinary acting of Mr. John A. Hiller and Miss Mariada Comer and their supporting cast and to the able direction of Mrs. Everett W. Varney, producer and coach, that the community was permitted to witness a flawless production of this masterpiece.

Those who attended with the memory of Warfield's acting in mind were the most enthusiastic of all who witnessed the production by the Club. Mr. Hiller's complete and sympathetic understanding of the role of Anton Von Barwig and his excellent make-up in exact conformity to Warfield's gave to the evening's revival
a sense of the years turned backward. Again the laughter and tears met the actor's rare skill as they re-enacted the humorous scenes or the exquisite moments of self denial or at last of happy consummating of a lifelong yearning.

The scene at the piano when Von Barwig makes sure that his daughter is at last found, his defiance when he cries to Stanton, "I want my child, I want my child," and his last final di-ologue with his daughter acted by Mariada Comer were within the finest traditions of great acting. The audience was electric with sympathy, laughter and applause. The excellent acting of Poons, the German, acted by Mr.
James Hawkes, received deserved applause. The other two musicians also were an integral part of the play.
Schwarz and Ryan acted by Ralph Ar-vesen and Edgar Swall were excellent character parts. Lillian Rice was very good as the slavey, Jenny, and Mrs.
Joseph C. Fuller as Miss Houston gave absolute satisfaction in her droll love scenes and comedy element.
